66 DROWN WHEN GERMAN DESTROYER IS RAMMED

BLAST KILLS WORKMEN IN CUT

Defective Charge of Dynamite Fatal to Two, Injuring Ten Others

Santa Fe Construction Camp in El Cajon Pass Scene of Accident

SAN BERNARDINO, March 5.—Two men were slain outright and four fatally injured today by a delayed shot of dynamite at a railroad construction camp near Keenbrook, ten miles north of here. Ten other workmen were injured more or less seriously by the rain of rock torn out of the cliff by the blast.

One of the men killed was George Wilkinson, general foreman of the Miller Construction Company, which is double tracking the Santa Fe line through El Cajon pass. The other man killed was a Mexican, who was blown 200 feet from the cliff into Cajon creek.

Steamer Collides With Sailing Ship

Fort Bragg Bumps Into Barkentine James Tuff in Morning Fog

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Entering the harbor in a dense fog early today, the little steamer Fort Bragg from Fort Bragg collided with the barkentine James Tuff in the causeway at the port entrance. The sailing vessel was badly damaged, the steamer's port anchor tearing away a portion of the vessel's starboard side from rail to water line.

British Airman Meets His End Demonstrating Machine for Government Sale

LONDON, March 5.—Geoffrey England, a British airman, fell a mile from his monoplane today while taking a flight on the army flying ground here and was instantly killed. He was demonstrating the machine with a view to selling it to the British government.

Alaska Governor Mails Resignation

JUNEAU, Alaska, March 5.—Governor Walter E. Clark mailed his resignation to President Wilson yesterday. As soon as he is relieved he will go to Connecticut to visit his parents.

Case Against Woman Is Dismissed by Court

SAN RAFAEL, March 5.—The life of Rev. Hubert Cowley-Carroll, rector of the Episcopal church in the exclusive Marin county village of Ross Valley, who charged that Mrs. Lucille Fields, a parishioner, had threatened to kill him, is not in immediate danger. Judge Zook of the Superior Court decided today that the woman never intended to kill the clergyman and upon her promise never to molest him, made in open court, the case was dismissed.

HEALTH BOARD ACTS AGAINST GERMAN

Demands That Doctors Allow Gotham M. D.'s to Make Tests

NEW YORK, March 5.—Dr. F. F. Friedmann of Berlin, who came to this country with Charles El Finlay, millionaire banker of New York, today abandoned all plans of testing his tuberculosis treatment in any New York hospitals with the sanction of the board of health. This had been suggested by the New York County Medical Society as the only course to pursue, inasmuch as he has no license to practice in this state.

The board of health considered the matter last night and although Dr. Friedmann, commissioner of health, said that in his opinion the serum was harmless, the advisory committee of the board voted against making any tests on patients.

GIVES OUT STATEMENT.

Dr. Lederle then gave out this statement: "On the advice of the advisory committee, it has been decided not to undertake at the present time any official clinical tests of any specific treatment of tuberculosis."

He added, however, that if Dr. Friedmann cared to give the board a sample of his treatment, "we will make certain tests, but not on patients." Dr. Friedmann remained at his hotel this morning and did not announce what he would do.

BOY KILLS HIMSELF.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Eighteen-year-old Charles Leiberman, a sufferer from tuberculosis, killed himself by inhaling gas yesterday. It was said he was despondent because he had been unable to see Dr. Friedmann. He made his third unsuccessful attempt, according to his father, to reach Dr. Friedmann at his hotel yesterday.

DEMOCRATS CHOOSE KERN

Indiana Senators to Lead the Bourbons in Upper House of Congress

Congressmen Caucus to Designate Membership of Ways and Means

WASHINGTON, March 5.—When the Democrats of the new senate met in caucus today to elect a chairman, there was no opposition to Senator John W. Kern of Indiana as the new leader. Senator Martin of Virginia, retiring Democratic leader, declared a few days ago he was glad to lay down the responsibility of his office.

The retirement of Senator Martin ends a long struggle for control of the senate of the sixty-third congress between the so-called Progressive Democrats and the old conservatives.

It was generally understood there would be no move to disturb the old leaders in their committee assignments.

CHOICE IS UNANIMOUS.

After the caucus assembled, Kern was unanimously chosen leader by acclamation. Joseph T. Robinson, the new Democratic senator from Arkansas, was the only member absent. He had not been able to get to Washington in time to take his oath of office.

The caucus then took up the business of committee assignments.

Republican senators also held a caucus during the morning and selected as their chairman Floor Leader Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire.

They authorized him to select a committee on committees, which will have charge of filling the Republican places. There was no opposition to the seniority rule.

Senator Kenyon was chosen secretary of the Republican caucus. Senator La Follette was present, but did not appear. The two latter have been classed as members of the Progressive party, but Republicans today stated that they expected Senator Clapp would share in Republican committee assignments.

NEW FACES IN EVERY ROW.

With new faces in every row, the senate prepared for its first real work under Democratic control. Vice-President Marshall, new to the intricacies of procedure, picked his way carefully through the mass of preliminary organization with the aid of experienced parliamentary clerks.

A call of the roll showed 33 present out of the existing membership of 55. Senators Kern, Smith, Martin, Lodge and Borah were appointed to notify the President the senate was ready to receive any communication from him.

House Democrats Also Hold Caucus

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Democratic members of the new house of representatives assembled here for the first time today, not in formal session, as part of the new congress, but in caucus to organize for the work of the coming session.

The meeting was held at the call of Representative Burleson of Texas, the caucus chairman, who becomes Postmaster General in President Wilson's cabinet. Wilson's successor as caucus chairman is Representative A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, who

Nebraskan Mentions "My Successor" in Address to Department

John H. Marble Is to Succeed Franklin K. Lane on Commission

WASHINGTON, March 5.—William Jennings Bryan, in addressing the assistant secretaries and heads of the various bureaus of the state department today, declared:

I am not prepared to discuss tenure in office. My own tenure is—I was about to say, brief—but my tenure has not even begun. I am sure your tenure is, therefore, not more uncertain than mine.

I have not had time to learn from the President the general policy that will be impressed on the various departments, but it is not necessary for us to discuss the length of service. It is sufficient at this time to make each other's acquaintance, and I hope that when the time comes for me to recommend you to introduce you to my successor, I can look back on as delightful associations as the retiring secretary does.

Bryan's words caused sharp surprise, but he followed them with no explanation.

MARBLE SUCCEEDS LANE.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—John H. Marble of California, secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission and formerly its attorney, will be appointed a member of the commission to succeed Franklin K. Lane, who becomes secretary of the Interior.

President Wilson will reappoint Edward Clark of Iowa member of the commission. Clark was reappointed by Taft, but his nomination failed of confirmation in the Senate.

President Wilson made formal announcement today that he has offered an ambassadorship to Chairman William C. Redfield of the Democratic National Committee.

Mr. Redfield told me he did not wish a cabinet appointment. I have offered him one of the principal diplomatic posts and I hope he will accept. I desire men of cabinet size for the chief foreign appointments," said the President.

HERRICK RESIGNS.

PARIS, March 5.—Myron T. Herrick, United States ambassador to France, following the usual custom on a change of administration, has sent his resignation to President Wilson. The French foreign office has received no inquiry as to the acceptability of any particular successor.

The nominations of Clark and Marble were received and considered by the Senate today. After a brief session the Senate confirmed Clark. It did not, however, take the same action in regard to Marble.

It was said there was no possibility to Marble's nomination, but the Senate wished to have his name fully considered by the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission. The Senate then adjourned until 2 p. m. Friday.

New Chair at Table for Labor; President Refuses to See Job-Hunters

WASHINGTON, March 5.—President Wilson's cabinet slate, as published previously, was confirmed by the United States Senate today. The Senate reconvened at 2 o'clock and the cabinet nominations were received. On motion of Senator Bacon the Senate went into executive session. After a brief session the Senate confirmed all the nominations.

Some opposition to the appointment of William C. Redfield as secretary of commerce was made by Senator Gallinger in executive session. Redfield has been active in a House committee investigation of the local fire insurance companies, in which the name of a relative of Senator Gallinger was brought in. The Senator finally withdrew his objection at the request of other Senators.

A new chair was placed in position around the long table in the room in which the cabinets of the past have deliberated. This was intended for William B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, as secretary of the department of labor. Wilson stepped from a seat in the House to his new chair.

From a previous appearance, the family council of the new President promises to be a friendly and harmonious one. Many of its members have long been fellow-strivers in the fight for the supremacy of the Democratic party.

VESSEL IS PRISON OF DEATH

Cruiser Yorick Cuts Small War-Boat in Two While in The North Sea

Disaster Worst in Annals of Kaiser's Navy; 15 Men Are Saved

HELIGOLAND, Germany, March 5.—Sixty-six of the crew of the German torpedo boat destroyer, "S 178," were drowned when the little vessel was rammed by the cruiser Yorick in the North Sea last night.

Among the dead are the commander of the torpedo boat, Lieutenant Koch, and his first officer. The surgeon and engineer and fifteen men of the crew were saved. The torpedo boat sank immediately.

Torpedo destroyer "S 178" was one of the newest destroyers in the German fleet. She displaced 338 tons and carried a complement of 34 officers and men.

RETURN FROM MANEUVERS.

"S 178" was returning during the night from maneuvers with the German battleships. The cruiser squadron and 64 other torpedo boat destroyers.

The destroyer attempted to pass through the intervals in the column of warships while the latter were steaming ahead at full speed. The commander of the "S 178" calculated the distance incorrectly and his boat was cut completely in halves by the cruiser Yorick and sank instantly.

FIFTEEN PICKED UP.

The Yorick signaled the accident to the other vessels of the fleet, which slowed down and cruised around in the vicinity, flashing their searchlights in all directions. Small boats were lowered from all the vessels and succeeded in picking up 15 of the crew of the sunken destroyer.

EXPRESS CONDOLENCE.

BERLIN, March 5.—Joseph C. Greaw, secretary of the American embassy, went to the ministry of marine to express to Admiral Von Tirpitz the condolence of America in connection with the sinking of the destroyer "S 178." The disaster is the worst in the annals of the modern German navy.

Three Indicted for Expensive Funeral

Exhumation Shows That $500 Casket was of Ordinary Wood.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., March 5.—James Conner, when alive, carried a hod and worked long and hard. He was more than a thousand dollars. Because his funeral cost $1100 three men were indicted today. Jailer Michael Kenley, an acquaintance who directed the undertaker to give an expensive funeral; Undertaker Wm. H. Deane, who charged the estate $400 for a casket, $4 for shoes, $2 for a suit and $10 for funerals for the horses, horses, and Public Administrator W. U. Halbert, who paid the bills from Conner's savings.

The indictments came after exhumation showed that the casket was of wood and that the body was without shoes or expensive clothing.

OVER 80 MILES OF SEWERS BUILT IN ONE YEAR

Oakland Street Department Makes Unprecedented Record.

Brooklyn Township Alone Has Over 80 Miles of Sewers Laid by City.

An unparalleled record in sewer building for a Pacific Coast city has been made by Oakland. Prior to annexation of territory which now forms the eastern portion of East Oakland, residents of that district had taken the first steps toward the formation of sanitary sewer districts. The territory had been settled within but a short time and there was a crying need for sanitation.

Following annexation, the matter was taken up on a similar plan within the city. Bonds were voted and the matter came almost to the time of commencing work, when the State Supreme Court rendered a decision invalidating the bonds.

Nothing daunted, the residents decided to undertake the matter of sewerage under the complicated procedure of the Vrooman act. The city appropriated $100,000 to assist, as it was recognized that conditions necessitated community aid.

OVER 80 MILES BUILT.

In Brooklyn township a record of constructing over 80 miles of sanitary sewer was constructed in 1912, according to a report filed with the city council today by Commissioner of Streets W. J. Eacuse, showing the progress of the work.

"With the acceptance last week of the sewer in Seventy-third avenue and adjacent streets in Fitchburg, I take pleasure in reporting to you the year's progress toward the Brooklyn township portion of the annexed district. Since construction work began in February, 1912, just one year ago, we have constructed 425,033 feet, or 80.2 miles, of sewer, that portion of the city. This has brought sewer facilities to the entire populated portion of the district excepting two outlying sparsely settled sections and to four short streets from which outlets became available only within the past few weeks. There will be several miles of sewer to be constructed during the coming summer, but the amount will be small compared with that of the past year. In fact, the sewers already constructed are more than provided by any of the previous plans and cover all of the urgent needs of the district.

COMPLICATED METHOD.

"The general method of construction was finally forced to adopt has been much more complicated than the original plan of a bond issue. As finally constructed, the city paid for the outlets from current revenues and the property-owners paid for the branch mains and laterals. Property-owners paid for their portion under the provisions of the 'improvement' method, which provided that a portion of the laterals were built by private contract where land is held in large tracts. Such tracts, however, were invariably included in the district assessed for sewerage, and the proportion of the cost of branch mains. The following table shows the amount of work constructed by the various methods of construction:

Leath. Cost.

City contracts... 37,065 $ 80,106.52

Eighteen lateral districts... 322,672 348,320.55

Private contracts and miscellaneous public contracts... 63,298 47,003.03

Miscellaneous expense... 20,597.86

Total... 425,033 $492,927.96

Note—Miscellaneous expense includes payment of engineering and legal expenses incurred before beginning of final proceedings all expenses for right of way, of small changes and additions; also $300,000 appropriated towards main outlet for district No. 1 other than the principal contract.

LATERAL DISTRICTS.

"The greater portion of the work was done under 18 public contracts. Each of these contracts included all of the sewers to be constructed in a certain area excepting in certain cases where the owners of tracts preferred to construct by private contract, and the district assessed included the area benefited by the branch main that led to the lateral district, or otherwise the lengths of branch mains were so distributed proportionately.

The districts varied in area from 41 acres to 539 acres. The least amount of sewer in any contract was 2210 feet, and the greatest was 32,294 feet. The smallest number of assessments in any district was 404 and the largest 3225. The total number of assessments was 20,430 and the total area of the 18 lateral districts, exclusive of streets, was 3298 acres.

"There has been considerable variation in the final cost to the property-owners in the several districts. This variation, however, was also very noticeable among the old sanitary districts where the tax was relatively different in the various districts. It is due partially to differences in contract prices, but mainly to topographical condition.

REDUCTION IN COST.

"The plan of dividing the territory to be sewered into comparatively small districts has proved to be the best method of handling this work. It increased competition, reduced prices, simplified the proceedings and enabled us to put away the work under contract early in the season. In fact, had any attempt been made to keep to the original sanitary district lines, it is doubtful if contractors would have bid on the work. At most, there would have been three contractors who might have bid, and their prices, if submitted at all, would certainly have been higher because of the risk and the monopoly conditions. As it was, the work was divided among nine contractors, and the smaller districts generally showed the lowest prices."

BURBANK'S BIRTHDAY IS BIRD AND ARBOR DAY

The anniversary of Father Burbank's birthday is on March 7. This day has long been set apart by statute at Bird and Arbor day for the purpose of including in schools suitable exercises having an eye to the instruction in economic value of birds and trees and furthering their protection.

RETIRING TELLER OF BANK, WHO WILL GO EAST SOON, HONORED AT BANQUET

SCENE AT THE BANQUET TENDERED FOR F. S. ANDREWS AT THE HOTEL OAKLAND LAST NIGHT.

A farewell dinner, at which F. S. Andrews, teller of the Central National Bank, was the honored guest, was given by his fellow employees last night on the mezzanine floor of the Hotel Oakland. Song and story with an original poem written for the occasion by A. Von Adeburg, made the evening one of great enjoyment for the retiring teller and his friends.

Andrews has held his present position with the bank for the last six years and the reason for his present retirement is that he desires to savor a life-long desire for travel. With Mrs. Andrews and his son Frank D. Andrews, he will start on a six months' trip for the East within a short time.

Howard Pratt and A. W. Dingwell sang several songs, accompanied on the piano by A. T. Stewart.

Among those present were: J. F. Carlston, D. Read, H. D. Worden, Felton Mallott, Roy L. Celio, M. R. Bronner,

Lawrence Garcia, H. C. Sagehorn, R. A. Adam, Wm. Martin, Jack Green, E. V. Holton, Kirby Cherry, Frank McCarthy, W. B. Crooks, H. A. Mosher, J. Donohoe, J. C. Crooks, J. J. Flynn, E. D. LICENSE REFORM NETS CITY $2711

New System of Commission Shows Big Gain in the City's Revenue.

Reorganization of the license inspection and collection bureau put into effect by the civil service commission resulted in a net gain of $2,711.25 for the month of February, 1913, over the same month in the previous year. W. A. J. Franke, who was the license collector under the previous system, failed to put into effect a good system of checks, and as a consequence many licenses went uncollected.

The system worked out under the recommendation of the civil service commission has proved eminently successful. The collection end of the license bureau is handled by deputies in the office of City Treasurer Edwin Meese and is kept up to date, so soon as any license falls behind, the police are notified, and after due notice has been given, arrests are made if necessary.

Sergeant James Walters has charge of the license inspection under the police bureau and has discovered that in one matter, not directly under the license bureau, but indirectly under the license bureau, the number of licenses has increased but slightly, this increase occurring in spite of the fact that the number of saloons is the same this year as last, the heaviest increase has been in the case of business licenses.

The civil service commission had the license matter examined during the change and has discovered that in one matter, not directly under the license bureau, but indirectly under the license bureau, the number of licenses has increased but slightly, this increase occurring in spite of the fact that the number of saloons is the same this year as last, the heaviest increase has been in the case of business licenses.

The license report prepared by the civil service investigators follows:

COMMERCIAL CLUB HEADS NAME NEW COMMITTEES

Work at High Speed at Last Night's Session; Much Is Accomplished

Working at high speed, the board of directors of the Oakland Commercial Club transacted a mass of business at its regular meeting last night.

Plans were made for the monthly luncheon, the personnel of many important committees was considered and approved, the charter membership roll was continued open till April 1, and other matters were handled.

OAKLAND IS PRAISED.

Praise for this city was expressed in a letter read last night by O. E. Hotie, to whom it was addressed, from W. W. Armstrong, president of the National Copper Bank of Salt Lake City. President Armstrong was a guest of Director Hotie while in Oakland some weeks ago.

He said in part: "I have made many trips to different parts of California, but I can assure you that if ever the time comes when I want to find a home on the Pacific coast there is only one place where I would wish that home to be, and that is in Oakland. It seems to me that you have more material to work with, more inducements to offer and more natural advantages than any other section of California, and not alone for the climate and place of residence, but also for business—in fact, in any line of endeavor that one might wish to enter."

It was decided on the recommendation of President Armstrong to invite Secretary Caine of the Salt Lake Commercial Club to come to Oakland in an advisory capacity to assist in the organization of the Oakland club.

DATE NEXT LUNCHEON.

The Commercial Club will gather at the regular monthly luncheon of the club in the Hotel Oakland next Monday noon. The luncheon will be an important gathering as the recently appointed committees will get together for the first time.

Secretary Farley was instructed to send out postal cards with return cards asking the members to be present and that they notify the secretary as to their ability to attend, that the right number of reservations might be made.

THE TRIBUNE IS COMMENDED. Commendation was accorded the editorial stand taken by the OAKLAND TRIBUNE in connection with the injustice done Oakland in the reports of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

THE TRIBUNE editorial was quoted in a letter from Fred B. Reed. The editorial set forth that while thousands of dollars in imports and exports pass over Oakland wharves, San Francisco is given credit for this magnificent traffic in the federal reports.

The matter was referred to Chairman F. W. Elger of the committee on commerce to take up the work of gaining justice for Oakland with the Chamber of Commerce, THE TRIBUNE and others interested in the commercial welfare of Oakland.

THE TRIBUNE editorial was read before the directors, and received high commendation. It set forth the fact that the imports are represented in the Commerce and Labor reports as having increased in 1912 more than $12,000,000 over those of 1910 and the exports more than $19,000,000, all from the port of San Francisco, with no credit given Oakland for its part.

MANY PREMIUMS OFFERED AT FAIR

Alameda County Association Offers Prizes for Best Horses and Displays.

The directors of the Alameda County Fair Association have passed a resolution appropriating $150 to be divided into three premiums of $75, $50 and $25 for the best original design representing some place, industry or public building in any community in Alameda, Contra Costa or Santa Clara counties, constructed of farm products or manufactured articles in the community represented. Exhibit to occupy space not over eight feet square nor more than eight feet in height when complete.

Also prizes of $20, $10 and $5 for the best display of farm products consisting of vegetables, grains, corn, beans and berries grown and raised by any school boy or girl, this year, under the age of 18 years. Such exhibits must be accompanied by a full record of area used, time of planting, manner of cultivation and care, and certified to by principal or teacher in school where exhibitor attended, in either of the above named counties.

Another new and interesting feature will be the school exhibits which is being planned by Superintendent of Schools George W. Frick and a committee appointed for the purpose of simplifying the contest in all schools. When the committee has completed the work and filed its report, copies will be sent to all the schools in the three counties above named, as well as all local papers in the counties.

Nearly all premium lists have been completed and as soon as books are published they will be sent to all who may apply for them to W. J. Dakin, secretary of the Alameda County Fair Association. New $5000 will be paid in premiums for fancy riding horses and gents' and ladies' saddle horses, in the horse show, which will be one of the attractive features of this year's fair. The directors are going to make the 1913 fair much more attractive in all the features than that of last year, and if their plans are carried out, the people of the bay counties will get a great show. There is no reason why there should be such counties Santa Clara, Alameda and Contra Costa, the cream of California, should not make as good a showing as almost any state in the Union, when taken in consideration with the beautiful park and training stables of R. J. MacKenzie at the world renowned racetrack at Pleasanton, where all the best harness horses in the country are training for the races which will be held at the time of the fair, September 17 to 20, 1913.

ADDITIONAL COMMITTEES. The first business of the evening was the naming of the committees.

A communication was received from O. E. Hotie, chairman of the committee on assemblies, recommending the personnel of the committees. The following names were approved: Judge Everett Brown, R. M. Fitzgerald, Walter Lemert, (fourth to be named).

Other committees were appointed as follows:

By F. W. Elger, chairman of the committee on commerce—A. G. Taft, B. Berovich, W. C. Jurgens, Fred Seuburger.

By Senator F. W. Leavitt, chairman of the committee on legislation—Hardison S. Robinson, Judge George Samuels, Mayor Frank K. Mott, John F. Connors, managing editor of the OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

By L. Richardson, chairman of the committee on arrangements—Louis Aber, T. B. Bridger, G. C. Farley and L. A. Heaton.

By Fred W. Bell, chairman of the committee on good roads—Commissioner of Streets W. J. Eacuse, Anson S. Blake, P. J. Walker and Henry Bachman.

By D. E. Perkins, chairman of the committee on press and publicity—Fred E. Reed, realty agent; B. A. Foster, manager of THE TRIBUNE; Hiram Hall of the Hall-White Co.; Glen Barnhart of the Realty Syndicate.

By C. F. Gorman, chairman of the committee on ways and means—E. C. Haver, Dr. J. MacLaren, F. B. Menden, C. M. Shrader.

By W. H. Welby, chairman of the committee on finance and revenue—E. H. Kitto, Golden L. Downing, A. J. Snyder, Jules Abrahamson.

CHARTER ROLL YET OPEN.

Charter membership, which was to have been closed by this time, is to be extended to April 1. The directors decided that the charter roll should not be closed immediately. There had been some delay in the adoption of the by-laws, and the sense of the meeting was that it would be better to give a full month for the gaining of charter members from the time of the adoption of the by-laws. This action was taken.

NAME NEW MEMBERS.

The following new members whose names were passed upon were placed on the charter roll: Thomas B. Fernandez, A. W. Moore, assistant cashier of the Oakland Bank of Savings; David L. McKay, 29 Sierra avenue; Geo. P. Baxter, J. B. Richardson, S. Jackson, E. A. Hushel, Mary L. Reising of the Alameda County Tax Association; Bertram G. York and A. L. Darrow.

WANT YOUNG MEMBERS.

A communication was received from S. M. Marks of the Peoples Water company suggesting that some change be made in the dues for membership on the ground that while business men could pay full dues, many young men who might be of service to the club were kept out. The letter was referred to Charles L. Smith, chairman of the committee on membership.

PLAN BIG BANQUET.

The matter of holding a large "ret-together banquet" for the commercial interests of the bay region was taken up. After some discussion, the chairman of the board was authorized, on the motion of Senator Frank W. Leavitt, to appoint a committee to take charge of the matter. The personnel of this committee will be announced at the next meeting.

The matter of the celebration of the opening of the Oakland and Antioch railroad was referred to the committee on transportation and harbors, presided over by W. W. Keith, to be taken up with other civic and commercial organizations.

On the recommendation of W. J. Layman, a committee was appointed to take up the matter of obtaining a permanent secretary of the commercial club. President Harman Bell appointed the following men: W. J. Layman, W. H. Welby, O. E. Hotie, C. J. Heeseman, F. W. Elger.

LABORER IS ACCUSED.

VIOLATES PAROLE AND IS ARRESTED

Ex-Convict Is Charged With Drinking and Attempting Suicide.

George McAuliffe, a paroled convict, was taken into custody in the receiving hospital this morning by Deputy Sheriff Stachler and Vandervoort and confined in the county jail on a charge of violating his parole by drinking and attempting suicide. In his pockets were found papers indicating that he had been paroled on October 13 last and that he had taken a position with the Holden Drug company in Stockton, where he was to have remained for six months.

McAuliffe is a pharmacist, 35 years of age. He was sentenced to San Quentin from Amador county January 9, 1911, for burglary in the first degree. He is a graduate of the University of California School of Pharmacy.

Taking a room in the Oakland House, 475 Seventh street, McAuliffe attempted suicide by drinking chloroform. He was found by the landlady, who notified Patrolman Garganec. The officer had him removed to the receiving hospital. Recently McAuliffe has been living at 322 Haight street, San Francisco. He has a sister in Hollister. As a result of his actions it is probable that the prison board will revoke his parole, with the penalty that he will have to serve out the remainder of his time minus all credits.

At present there is an old vacant house on the lot. This will be razed immediately. Bowles has not as yet decided upon what he will do with the lot, but is debating upon putting up a large structure which will probably be started within a very short period. Bowles declared that he expected this section of the city to soon become a very important one and with the opening of Fifteenth street, which he expects will soon take place, predicts that property in the vicinity will increase considerably in value.

Another item was added to the long line of big realty deals which are daily being consummated when the Layman Realty Co., this morning closed negotiations on a lot on the west side of Franklin street, about forty feet south of Fifteenth street. The lot, which is 42 feet in width by 125 feet in depth, brought $42,000. C. W. Bowles, a heavy operator in olive oil and olives in the north, who in the past few months has invested heavily in Oakland real estate, was the purchaser and George A. Douglass was the seller.

Site is on Franklin, Near 15th, and Purchase Price Is $42,000.

NEW PRESS BADGES IN PETERSEN'S HANDS

Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen has taken charge of the matter of issuing press and fire line badges, formerly handled by Fire Chief M. A. Ball. All old fire badges have been withdrawn by Petersen and after March 7 they will not be honored by the patrolmen on the fire lines or on other occasions where police lines are drawn.

The new badges are divided into two classes, those issued to accredited newspaper reporters, and those issued to minor officials, fire insurance men and others entitled to pass the fire lines. The press badge is a gold shield, with an oak tree embossed upon it while the fire line badge is a silver shield with a small fire engine embossed thereon.

In considering the possible developments in connection with the Union Pacific's dissolution plan, perhaps the most pertinent point is that the new attorney-general will take office tomorrow.

SETBACKS IN TWO

BOSTON, March 5.—The cause of woman suffrage received a setback in two New England legislatures today. After several spirited hearings a committee in the Massachusetts legislature voted to report "leave to Wednesday" on a bill providing for a referendum on a constitutional amendment which would eliminate the word "male" from the provisions defining the qualifications of a voter.

Six members of the committee voted against suffrage, three for it, and two were not recorded. A similar proposition was killed in 63, after it has been passed by the senate.

CHARGE OFFICERS WITH DERELICTION

Commissioners Declare They Were Refused Aid in Enforcing Laws.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5. — That prosecuting officers refuse to aid the fish and game commission in enforcing the laws against dumping petroleum into the bay, is the statement made by Commissioner Carl Westerfield and Attorney H. D. Duke, who have filed charges to this effect.

They specifically charge District Attorney A. E. McKenzie of Contra Costa county with saying he would not prosecute such offenders, but state that in other bay counties and in San Luis Obispo county they met with the same spirit of indifference among prosecuting officials.

Bringing the matter to a climax was the case against the Union Oil Company, for discharging oil into the bay at its Orem plant, which was before Justice of the Peace C. H. Hayden at Martinez two days ago. At that time Duke objected to some testimony which District Attorney McKenzie, who was handling the case, allowed Chief Engineer Penn of the oil company to make. This testimony was to the effect that the company had spent $60,000 in installing a plant to cleanse water from petroleum which might be in it, but that the plant did not take all the deleterious matter from the water which found its way into the bay at that point.

After the clash in the court between the prosecuting officer and the attorney for the commission, the two had a heated argument outside, at which time words were passed, according to Duke. Commissioner Westerfield avowed that McKenzie had told deputies of the commission, M. S. Clark and Ray Heacock, that he would not prosecute corporations in his county for violation of the law against dumping petroleum in the bay.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.
"I am very glad to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Lida Dewey, Milwaukee, Wis. "I have used it for years both for my children and myself and it never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. No family with children should be without it as it gives almost immediate relief in cases of croup." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale at Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.

FIRE IN BASEMENT.
A defective chimney in the residence of J. Barnard at Eighteenth and Linden, caused a small basement fire this morning. The flames were soon extinguished by the aid of chemicals.

KNOWLAND SPEAKS ON 'NAVY YARD'

Congressman Replies to Wither-spoon's Attack and Criticisms.

During the consideration of the naval bill in the house an attack was made upon the Mare Island navy yard by Congressman Witherpoon of Mississippi. The following defense of the yard, appearing in the Congressional Record of February 25th, was made by Congressman Knowland, who took occasion in his speech to call attention also to the demoralized condition of the democratic committee handling the naval bill:

The clerk read as follows:
Naval magazine, Mare Island, Cal. One magazine building, $15,000; two filling houses, $2,400; extension of sea wall, $2,500; in all, $19,900.

Mr. Knowland.—Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word. This morning, when the gentleman from Mississippi was addressing the house, he took occasion to make an attack upon the Mare Island navy yard, located in California. I want to say in this connection that to the Mare Island navy yard.

Mr. Sisson.—I want to say to the gentleman that there were two "gentlemen from Mississippi" who addressed the house this morning. It was the other gentleman who referred to the Mare Island navy yard.

Mr. Knowland.—I referred to the other gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. Witherpoon). The gentleman's apology is accepted.

REQUIRE REFUTATION.
While after March 4 I will no longer represent the Mare Island navy yard, I nevertheless feel there should not go into the record statements such as he made without being refuted, particularly in view of the fact that they were misstatements.

Mr. Sisson.—I will ask the gentleman to yield for just a moment. I notice that my colleague from Mississippi (Mr. Witherpoon) is not on the floor. I want that to be noted in the record.

Mr. Knowland.—I wish he were on the floor, because I would like to have him hear what I have to say. I want to state in reference to the Mare Island navy yard that it is one of the oldest, the best equipped and the most efficient navy yards in the whole United States. We have only two navy yards on the Pacific coast, the Mare Island navy yard and the navy yard located at Puget Sound. Mare Island is the only one equipped with any government yard outside of the one at Brooklyn, and is one of the two navy yards in the country thoroughly equipped for shipbuilding. We have built there the training ship Intrepid, we have built the cutter of the Fish Hawk class, the cutter Jupiter. The records of the department show that of all ships built in government yards no better record was made than at the Mare Island navy yard in the building of a cutter as mentioned. There is only one criticism that can be made against that yard, and that is in regard to the depth of the channel, and I will admit that there has been some difficulty in that respect.

ASKED FOR COST.
Mr. Murray.—Is the gentleman familiar enough to give the committee the information as to the cost of equipping the Mare Island yard for the shipbuilding facilities referred to?

Mr. Knowland.—I remember one item which has been mentioned, a cutter crane, which cost $175,000, and then there were some other items for tools, and so forth, which has made it a thoroughly equipped yard for shipbuilding. Everyone realizes that the draught of vessels has been increasing, and there is scarcely a navy yard in the United States where it has not been necessary to expend money for dredging, in order that the larger battleships might be able to enter these yards. This has been true of nearly every harbor within the United States. To meet this condition at the Mare Island navy yards there was appointed by the president in 1907 a board of army and navy engineers to make a careful study of the condition of the Mare Island straits and approaches with the idea of securing for the channel leading to that yard a sufficient depth of water. They made a report, which I now hold in my hand, known as House Document No. 1102, Sixtieth congress, second session. Nothing was done in regard to those recommendations until 1911, when estimates were made by the secretary of the treasury touching the improvement of the channel in San Pablo bay, Cal., which are the approaches to this yard. Appropriations were made by congress, which are continuing appropriations, providing for the improvement as recommended by this government board.

The chairman.—The time of the gentleman has expired.

Mr. Mann.—Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman may proceed for five minutes more.

The chairman.—Is there objection? (After a pause.) The chair hears none.

IMPROVEMENT PROGRESSING.

Mr. Knowland.—Appropriations were made to give sufficient depth of water in order that the largest battleship afloat might reach that yard. I have no doubt that when it is completed, and the money has already been provided for it, that we will have leading to the Mare Island navy yard a channel sufficiently deep to accommodate the largest vessels. There has been a great deal of money spent there. It is an ideal location for a navy yard because it is sufficiently far away from the Pacific ocean to be safe from attack by a hostile fleet, and for this reason it has a special strategic advantage.

Mr. Padgett.—If the gentleman will permit, I can give him the amount expended, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Murray). The amount for the plant, buildings, and so forth, $17,644,057, and the amount for the maintenance, $17,363,162, making $35,000,000 all told.

Mr. Knowland.—That covers the period since the establishment of the yard in the seventies?

Mr. Padgett.—Yes; since its organization.

Mr. Knowland.—The question of the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Murray), as I understood it, had reference only to what it has taken to equip the yard for shipbuilding, and I answered by giving the cost of a crane. In view of these facts, Mr. Chairman, it would seem unfair for anyone to rise on this floor and say that the Mare Island navy yard is useless because there has been some slight difficulty in regard to the depth of channel, when congress has provided the money necessary to make the depth sufficient to accommodate any vessel afloat.

CRITICISMS ATTITUDE.

I have sat here, Mr. Chairman, during the consideration of this bill and have noted the most extraordinary attitude which confronts this house. Never before have I seen such a mix up. We have two democratic factions among the members of the committee on naval affairs, and the other faction defending it. I bill and the other faction defending it. I describe this committee, I would com-

NEW HAYNES AUTO ARRIVES IN CITY

Model '24' Makes a Favorable
Impression in the New Branch House.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

Inaugural day was celebrated in appropriate style on automobile row yesterday, particularly that portion of the row in the vicinity of the Haynes Auto Sales Company's new headquarters, the specific event being the introduction of the latest Haynes car, model 24, which arrived early yesterday morning on schedule time. Having been widely heralded through an aggressive advertising campaign, Haynes 24 easily became the center of interest on "automobile row" and was the recipient of many congratulatory remarks by those who inspected it. All predicted a brilliant future for it, due to its attractive lines and a new low price level for cars in its class.

Many features present themselves upon inspection of this new Haynes car which have been overlooked in the advance advertisements. For instance, the car has a rather rakish appearance, which makes it appeal to many owners and is in the somewhat lower. The exterior of which there are four, are cast in pairs with a one-inch offset. The suspension of the car is of special Haynes design, known as a combination four points flexible and rigid suspension. The car is equipped with a dual type magnet, a splash and force feed lubricating system, insuring perfect lubrication at all times.

As its predecessor, model 22, model 24 is equipped with the Leace-Neville separate unit electric starting and lighting system. The left-hand drive with center control is also a new feature of this car. Model 24 has a wheel base of 118 inches, is upholstered both in front and the rear seats with 12-inch cushions and is equipped with 40-inch front springs, semi-elliptic in design and 48-inch, three-quarter elliptic springs in the rear, features which insure comfortable and luxurious riding qualities of this Haynes car.

PRATT RETURNS.

B. H. Pratt, Pacific Coast manager of the Fisk Tire and Rubber Company, has just returned from a trip through the South. Pratt went by way of the coast route, returning through the valley. In speaking of the trip Pratt says:

"The great rain that they have had south will do wonders for that section. It will come very near making up the loss sustained through the cold snap a few weeks ago."

"In and around Los Angeles, and as far south as San Diego, I was surprised to find the roads so good at this time of the year. Their wear roads down there now are better than our best roads here. San Francisco merchants and, in fact, every one, should see these roads. They would then appreciate why it is that tourists never think of motoring north after one experience."

"These tourists bring large quantities of money into the State and if we had better roads here and a respectable main highway from the north to the south, all this money would not be left in the southern part of the State."

NEW CHALMERS MAN.

A. F. Kales, ex-National Bank Examiner of Oakland, is the latest to join the ranks of the automobile industry. Kales, who for the last six months, has been at the Chalmers factory studying the Chalmers cars, has just returned to the city of the Pioneer Automobile Company.

Kales, whose extensive experience in commercial circles makes him an exceedingly valuable addition to the Chalmers representatives.

THAT STUTZ AGAIN.

Advices received here yesterday from San Diego by the A. B. Cosby Motor Car Company of Oakland tell of the victory won by the Stutz car in the recent race meet there. According to the report the Stutz car got first honors in the 450 and under class. The speedy Stutz car was driven by Earl Cooper, the clever local pilot who has made Barney Oldfield and Bob Burman hump recently while the latter two were vying the coast with their massive racing machines. Cooper, who has the car and the Firestone tires with which it was equipped was one of the features of the race.

SODALITY MEMBER DIES IN HOSPITAL

After an illness of eight weeks Miss Myrtle Le Strange, daughter of Patrick Le Strange of 866 Pine street, died in a sanitarium of San Francisco yesterday. The deceased was a member of a family of nine children and was the first to succumb. She was 24 years of age and had lived the greater part of her life in San Francisco, where she was born. For the past four years she made her home here.

The late Miss Le Strange was educated in St. Brendan's Convent of San Francisco and was associated with St. Mary's Sodality for a number of years. She was the daughter of Patrick Le Strange and is survived by six sisters—Minnie, Bernice, Loretta, Florence, Estelle and Claire Le Strange—and two brothers—Matthew and John Le Strange.

The funeral will be held Friday morning from the residence, 866 Pine street. Rev. Father May of St. Patrick's church will officiate. The interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

DANVILLE TO HOLD
BIG PEACH CARNIVAL

MARTINEZ, March 5.—A peach carnival to be held this summer in Danville or the Mt. Diablo Park is the plan which has been proposed by the Danville Improvement Club and which is being forwarded by the board of the San Ramon valley. The festival held last year in Concord and the one of the preceding year in Walnut Creek were both big successes, and the Eastern Contra Costa Chamber of Commerce has already announced an all-mountain carnival to be held next year in Antioch.

The New Cabinet.

No President ever framed a cabinet without causing a great deal of heart-burning. Woodrow Wilson is no exception to the rule. He has been compelled to disappoint many of his friends and warm supporters simply because there were not enough cabinet offices to go round. But when there are a dozen candidates with preferred claims aspiring to each office, the President has no option but to make such selections as he thinks wisest under the circumstances. Yet the murmur of disappointment is usually loud. Complaints filled the air while the President was being inaugurated. The disappointed ones had no mind to conceal their grief or stifle their resentment. They accused the new executive of ingratitude, of bad faith and unfairness.

Yet it all had to be. Nine-tenths of the cabinet aspirants had to be overlooked. The President could not appoint them all. There will be consolation prizes for some of those who hoped for cabinet positions, but many will have to go unrewarded. Such is the law of circumstance and the vicissitudes of politics. Many are called but few are chosen, saith the Bible. Mr. Wilson is fulfilling scripture.

Still the cabinet lacks geographical balance, however well-fitted the members be for their respective positions. It may be summed up as representing the South, New York and Mr. Bryan. David A. Houston, the new Secretary of Agriculture, is credited to Missouri, but he was born in North Carolina and until recently he was president of the State University of Texas. William G. McAdoo and William C. Redfield are citizens of New York City, James McReynolds is credited to Tennessee, where he formerly resided, but he is likewise a resident of New York. Lindley M. Garrison resides just across the river in New Jersey.

Therefore four members of the new cabinet are from the immediate vicinity of New York City, which gives a parochial color to the whole cast. Albert S. Burleson is from Texas. Josephus Daniels is from North Carolina. He is the only conspicuous friend of Bryan in the cabinet. Pennsylvania gets the Secretary of Labor and California the Secretary of the Interior.

Illinois, New England, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Wisconsin get nothing. La Follette has been ignored. Louis D. Brandeis has been dropped in the discard, and Rudolph Spreckels and the Progressives are in tears. In addition to the War portfolio New Jersey gets the eleventh member of the cabinet in Joseph Patrick Tumulty, the President's private secretary. William McCombs, who managed the President's campaign, is not in the list. He will probably be taken care of later on.

Jeffersonian simplicity is an excellent thing, but when it is made a vehicle of cheap advertising and still cheaper politics it becomes a humbug and a bore.

As we expected, the Mexican commander at Agua Pretas alleges that the troopers of the Ninth Cavalry were the aggressors in the recent skirmish. Colonel Guilfoyle stoutly insists that his men were fired on first. It makes little difference who did fire the first shot in this instance, the incident will help materially to clear up the situation. The Mexicans have been taught a salutary lesson. They will be careful hereafter about shooting up the border and firing across the line whenever an excess of mescal moves them to martial action. When they find that the American soldiers will shoot back and shoot to kill they will be less inclined to indulge in gun practice across the line.

Carl Browne's Panacea.

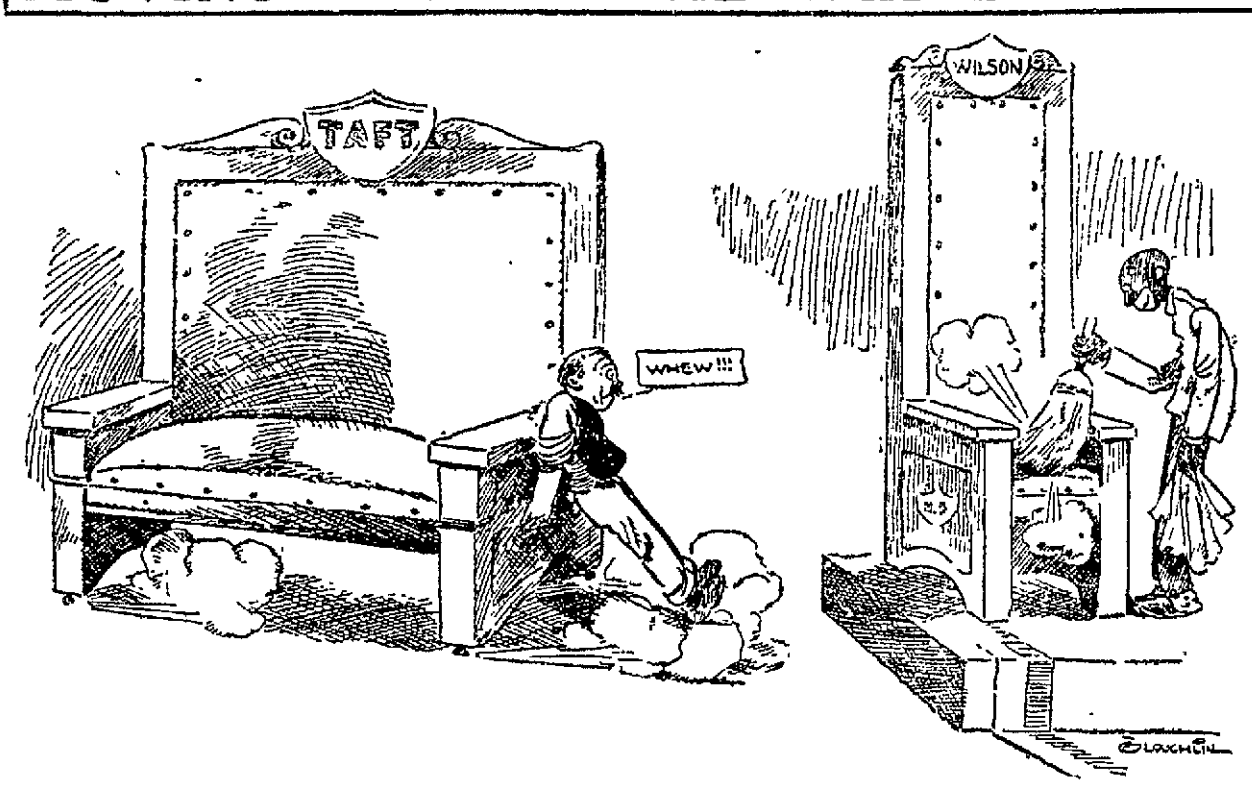

Carl Browne, eminent as a publicist, reformer and as a foe to the curse of labor, is leading a delegation on foot to Sacramento to urge the Legislature to abolish poverty. Browne was once a lieutenant of Jacob Coxey, and led a division of Coxey's army to Washington. Then he wanted the government to provide every man with a job. Since then the benevolent Mr. Browne has broadened his scheme of political philanthropy. He is not now asking work for the unemployed, but for the abolition of the necessity for work. Many years ago Browne was an advocate of fiat money, but he could never explain how he was to get the money, even if it were only irredeemable paper, without working or giving some equivalent for it. Next he enthusiastically advocated the plan of the government building warehouses and loaning money on farm products stored therein. After a time he discovered that this plan promised no relief from the financial stringency from which he suffered. He had no farm products to store in a government warehouse and it required labor to produce farm products. He has now solved the whole problem by a scheme to abolish poverty. How to live without work yet not go hungry has perplexed Carl's massive brain for many years. It is gratifying to learn that at last he has hit upon a solution. Formerly he was in favor of legislating money into the people's pockets. Now he proposes to make the use of money unnecessary—he would put poverty out of business by legislative fiat.

The rough treatment the suffragists received in the streets of Washington reflects no credit on the inhabitants of the national capital, but when women place themselves on a political equality with men they should be prepared for disagreeable experiences. The male hoodlum is prone to resent the intrusion of a new element in a field which he considers his own. Nor can women rely upon sex immunity in the hurly burly of politics. Of course there is no excuse for the blackguardly conduct of the Washington crowd. When a mob gets drunk with excitement it is a brutal, unreasoning creature, and will do things in the mass that the members would shrink in disgust from as individuals. What led to the unseemly conduct of the crowd was the instinctive feeling that the suffragists had divested themselves of their claim to respect as ladies by parading through the streets at the inaugural parade.

Well, after all, Pennsylvania avenue is no place for a parlor parade.

Some of the incidents in the march of "General" Rosalie Jones' army to Washington were provocative of mirth. For instance, in hiking from Laurel to Bladensburg, Maryland, as the telegraph tells us, "Lieutenant" Phoebe Hawn discarded her footwear and plodded through the mud and water barefooted. Phoebe's toe mark she left in the mud a proof that her cause is just. Still it occurs to us that a woman can be a suffragist without being ridiculous.

MOVING DAY AT THE WHITE HOUSE

—PORTLAND EVENING TELEGRAM.

Bryan's Triumph Cleveland's Vindication.

After the lapse of sixteen years the Democrats are once more in control of the government. They have a good working majority in both houses of Congress—a condition that has not existed save for the brief period covered by the first half of Mr. Cleveland's second term since James Buchanan left the White House in 1861. Thus the Democratic party not only controls the law-enforcing, but the law-making power.

On the surface the political revolution may appear to be in some sort of a triumph for Mr. Bryan, but the victory Mr. Bryan has achieved is personal rather than political. While he heads the cabinet, the President and Vice-President are men who have never subscribed to his financial theories, and who voted against him in 1896. The return of the Democrats to power marks the final defeat and repudiation of Mr. Bryan's fiscal theories. Mr. Bryan was an influential advocate of Woodrow Wilson's election, but it is worth while remembering that Mr. Wilson stands upon Mr. Cleveland's monetary platform.

Because it is so responsive to popular moods, emotional fantasies and sentimental ebullitions, the Democratic party has been prone to embrace empirical theories of finance and fallacies such as John Law exploited, but it won victories only when it was standing for sound money and a stable fiscal system. Andrew Jackson and old Tom Benton rescued the party from the morass of wild-cat banking, and Samuel J. Tilden restored it to sanity after its attack of rag money rabies. Then came Cleveland who had to use strong-arm methods to put down the free silver heresy. Mr. Cleveland was repudiated at the close of his second administration, and Mr. Bryan was exalted as the party's financial prophet. He still has a large following, but Mr. Cleveland slew his false god before he retired to private life. Mr. Bryan could never attain the Presidency nor induce the nation to accept his cheap money fallacy.

Again the Democracy is triumphant, and Mr. Bryan is in a post of honor, but the fact should not be lost sight of that the party is standing for honest money and sound finance. It has returned to the sane financial principles of Jefferson, Jackson, Tilden and Cleveland, and while Mr. Bryan heads the cabinet he owes his position to the favor of a man who repudiated him and his coinage fallacy sixteen years. It may be a personal triumph for William Jennings Bryan, but it is a vindication for Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Taft's conduct during the last hours of his administration was characteristic. He attended to official business up to the last moment, vetoing two important bills for reasons that will appeal to thoughtful men of all parties. His disapproval of the sundry civil bill, while regrettable from one point of view, was made necessary by a provision which can only be regarded as a mischievous rider. It was an attempt to amend the Sherman anti-trust law by inserting a provision in an appropriation bill. If the Sherman act is to be amended, let it be amended fairly and openly. It should not be allowed to stand on the statute books while its operation is nullified by making appropriation bills carry provisions which forbid the enforcement of the law in certain circumstances. Mr. Taft did his duty, as he saw it, to the last, and we think the country will thank him for it some time in the future.

Did we hear anybody say steam to one?

BITS HERE AND THERE

With Volapuk and Esperanto in the field, the champions of each making efforts to show superiority as a universal language, a new aspirant has appeared at Marietta, Ohio, in the form of what the inventor or maker calls world speech. The Zamenhof of the new language is a clergyman who, in a pamphlet on the subject, deprecates the fact that the Ohio Legislature indefinitely postponed action on a bill introduced in the Legislature at Columbus memorializing Congress to call a world conference of the various nations in order to have it consider the question of devising some form of universal language. "Marietta being the oldest city in Ohio, he thinks it well fitted to be the home of world speech and the cradle of a language that is destined to be the universal language of all mankind."

In an article on "Internal Cleanliness," in the current issue of "Health Culture," Samuel Salomon says: "If we would enjoy life to the utmost, if we would escape the obvious signs of old age (which is believed to be due to the deposit of excretable salts in the walls of the arteries and in the various tissues of the body), we would delay the coming of the dead winter, death, until very late in life, it is necessary that we be clean—not in the sense of cleanliness that is generally advised, but internal and external cleanliness. It is the time that a 25-cent commode is worth."

Twenty Years Ago Today

The grand jury, after a six months' exhaustive investigation of the city and county, have returned a report covering recommendations, commendations and criticisms to the extent of a hundred pages. The management of the county infirmary was found to be excellent and the receiving hospital to be also well managed and efficient. The public pond came in for the largest share of the criticism, it being found that the dogs were not watered and oftentimes left so hungry that they devoured one another. John J. Mackay is still suffering from the effects of the bullet wound inflicted by Rippey.

The Rockefeller Rhetorical Society will give an open meeting tomorrow night in Mary Street hall in California College. An excellent musical and literary program has been prepared.

Miss George Chase of East Oakland is the guest of Mrs. George Furbush at Livermore.

Miss Lotta Clough visited her cousin, Mrs. William Ford, last week at Niles. Mrs. Charles Webb Howard had a pleasant musicale at her home recently in which Robert Tomlin, Miss Wall B. Noyes, Mr. Smith and Miss Grace D. Fischer were the participants. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John R. Glascock, Mrs. Edna Snell Poulson, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Howard, H. A. Redfield and Mr. Tubbs.

G. W. Hosmer of this city was married to Miss Margarette M. Hutchins of New York in San Francisco last evening by Rev. J. Q. A. Henry. Mr. and Mrs. Hosmer will be at home Wednesday in April at 889 Harrison street. William Hall of East Oakland has gone to Washington to witness the inauguration of Cleveland.

That Harvard professor who hasn't slept for twenty years ought to try attending some of the lectures. USE FOR RESINOL IN EVERY HOME

Keep that Soothing, Healing Ointment Always Ready for Use.

The same soothing, healing, antiseptic medication which makes Resinol Ointment so successful for eczema and other skin eruptions, makes it also the ideal household remedy for a score of troubles that constantly arise in every home. It quickly heals burns, scalds and wounds, is an excellent dressing for ulcers, fells, boils and stubborn sores, stops itching at once; gives prompt and permanent relief from piles and is invaluable for many minor skin troubles such as cold sores, pimples and chafings. Resinol Ointment positively contains nothing of a harsh or irritating nature. It is absolutely pure and so gentle, yet effective, that it can be used freely on the most inflamed surface of the tenderest skin, even of a tiny baby. Doctors have prescribed it for fourteen years. You can test it on a small area of your skin. Resinol Ointment in two sizes, opal jars, fifty cents and a dollar.

ANCIENTS OF UTAH

Cliff dwellings more than 1000 years old and buildings of even greater age have been discovered in Utah, according to D. B. Miller, assistant supervisor of the general land office, who has been at the head of a surveying party in that State for the last ten months.

"The cliff dwellings we found in Utah undoubtedly are many hundreds of years old," said Mr. Miller. "They were doubtless built by the Montezuma Indians. These Indians also built on the mesa lands, and many interesting structures were found beneath the surface of these lands. In Utah are three natural bridges that are more wonderful than the natural bridge of Virginia. All are wider and two considerably higher than the Virginia bridge. One of these bridges has a span of more than 200 feet and the arch is more than 100 feet from the ground. It seems almost to have been made by man. White persons rarely have visited these wonders of nature. "The Navajo Indians in Utah are, of course, well acquainted with all these things. The Navajos are essentially superstitious. They do not mingle much with the whites and few of them speak English. When one is found who can speak English, it is pretty certain that he is a sharper. "My party went into Utah to survey the public lands early last April and remained there until October. During the entire time not a drop of rain fell, and it is curious that all the time we were in that country we were followed about by an old Navajo medicine woman, who persisted in telling the Indians that so long as we stayed there no rain would come. We paid no attention to her, of course, but we had to give her a thought when on the day we broke camp, within a few hours after we had left the Indian lands, a terrific storm arose that deluged the whole country. I suppose that the old medicine woman now is looked upon by her companions as a supernatural creature."

RESERVE DIAMOND SUPPLY

"There are enough diamonds lying in storage in South Africa to supply the demand for ten years," remarked William Craig, a globe-trotter of New York. "The diamond mines of that country, of course, are being worked, but it is only to keep up the supply in storage. If the diamond trust of South Africa wanted to market all the precious stones that are mined, it would result in an immediate fall in the price of diamonds, because there would be enough to glut the market. Wisely for themselves, therefore, the companies that control the diamond mines limit the number of stones sent to the market, so that only enough, perhaps less than enough, are placed on the market to supply the demand."

Mr. Craig has a collection of diamonds estimated to be worth $50,000, most of which he secured in South Africa. Some are Brazilian stones, and he declares that the Brazilian diamonds are in many instances more brilliant than the South African product.

"In all my travels I found the city of Buenos Ayres, Argentina, the most interesting municipality in the world," added Mr. Craig. "It is a marvelous city in many respects. There is nothing that New York, or any other of our American cities, offers that cannot be found in Buenos Ayres. The municipal government is modern in every way. The city is laid out in the most up-to-date manner, and the streets are kept as clean as the streets of Washington. One does not lack for amusements or entertainment of any sort. There are numerous theaters that play the best attractions in Europe and the United States, though I do not recall having seen any American actors in Buenos Ayres. I did hear some of the best grand opera, however, I ever heard. In my opinion, Buenos Ayres will be one of the great cities of the world in the next generation."—Washington Post.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

Sometimes a man uses gold bricks in constructing his air castles. After all is said and done, nothing is so stale as a satisfied man. Some husbands are so well trained that they don't know they are hesped. It is almost impossible for a woman to pass a barber shop without looking in. And a lazy man can't because he won't. Where there's a will there is a way. Society is a fence that shuts some people in and others out. No man can understand why women let tears flow at weddings. Of course your way of earning a living is the hardest way there is. Science tunnels mountains while faith is figuring on moving them. Any thin woman can get plump with the right kind of a dressmaker. There is always a chance for a man to become famous if he isn't a dead one. It is said that some insects reach maturity within thirty minutes after birth, but some specimens of mankind do not mature in thirty years.—Chicago News.

BERKELEY GOSSIP & STUDENTS AND SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS IN BAY UNIVERSITY TOWN AND ALAMEDA IN THE ISLAND CITY

BERKELEY SCHOOLS TO HAVE SOCIAL CENTERS

Four Established in Which the Extension Courses Will Be Given.

Many Lectures Available in the New Institutions; Oaklanders Attend.

BERKELEY, March 5.—Definite motion was imparted to the social center scheme for Berkeley by the extension department of the University of California, at last night's meeting of the board of education. E. C. Wright, instructor in physical geography, including course, Sierra and Mt. Sierra scenery; six lectures on "California Scenery," by Professor R. S. Holway of the department of commercial geography, with special reference to the Panama canal; six lectures by Professor C. L. Seeger, Jr., head of the department of anthropology, on "The Indians of California;" six lectures by Professor C. L. Seeger, Jr., head of the department of anthropology, on "German Folk Songs," illustrated at the piano. Lectures except those in the last series would be illustrated by stereoscopic views.

Dr. Howarth suggested local organizations in the neighborhood of the school where the social centers would be opened. These organizations would choose the subjects they cared to have presented, taking courses as a whole or picking lectures from among the several courses. Other courses would be available in the future besides those already arranged.

Lectures at the university by Professor C. L. Seeger, Jr., on "The Indians of California," and "German Folk Songs," were already being attended by pupils of upper grammar grades of Oakland. Dr. Howarth added, "Three of these lectures are available on Wednesday afternoons to Berkeley pupils, as follows:

"Indians in California," "The Ancient Mexicans," and "German Folk Songs."

The board authorized Cherrington and Superintendent James to arrange for local pupils to attend these, designating dates on which different schools would send their sixth, seventh and eighth grade students.

Arrangements will be made for starting the social centers at as early a date as possible. It is intended to represent each section of the city in the four social centers first to be organized.

PAUL L. EVANS OF COLLEGE CITY SCHOOLS RESIGNS

BERKELEY, March 5.—Paul L. Evans, head of the commercial department of the Berkeley high school, tendered his resignation to the school board last evening to take effect April 1. He appeared in person before the board, the members of which expressed their individual regrets at his leaving. He has been employed by a development company in the Sacramento valley.

Evans has been a teacher in the Berkeley high school for several years and for three years has been head of the commercial department. He has been popular alike with students and faculty, a recent class edition of the Olla Podrida, the high school paper, having been dedicated to him.

LOWTHER TO SING HERE IN FALL

The "Irish" Baritone of High-Titled English Family to Tour California.

Of all the musical artists to visit California this season Brabazon Lowther has created the liveliest interest from the combined artistic and social standpoint. Besides being possessor of a beautiful baritone voice which he uses to great advantage, with the assistance of a magnetic personality, which manifests itself in six feet of striking masculinity, Brabazon Lowther is but in his 30th year, unmarried and heir to a beautiful old English estate; unquestionably such a combination will be lionized to the nth degree.

As Lowther is to be in the State over the holidays some of the clubs are taking advantage of the fact to arrange for special Christmas programs.

Brabazon Lowther belongs to the ancient Lowther family of England and Ireland of which the Earl of Lonsdale is the head. He is the eldest surviving son of Colonel William Gorges Lowther, late royal artillery, of Shrigley Park, Cheshire. Shrigley Park is noted for being one of the most beautiful estates in England and it adjoins the famous Lyme Park which belongs to Lord Newton, cousin of Brabazon Lowther.

Brabazon Lowther is also a cousin of Hon. William James Lowther, speaker of the House of Commons, and of Colonel Lowther, aide to the Duke of Connaught. In musical circles Brabazon Lowther is referred to as an Irish baritone—he was born on the Irish estates at Fermoy. Sir Christopher Lowther of Kilruddery was a famous ancestor. The name of Brabazon is Irish and Lowther was so called for his grandfather.

Brabazon Lowther's artistic career has been made in spite of high family connections, for like all conservative Englishmen he was opposed to an artistic career for the heir, that position being considered to carry with it honor and money. But Lowther is an artist at his finger tips and did not see it that way.

His tour of California begins the middle of November and ends in the New Year, at which time Lowther will return to Texas and Mississippi to fill additional dates. Clark, who will sing in Texas on his way to the coast.

BERKELEY SCHOOL CHILDREN THRIFTY

BERKELEY, March 5.—Berkeley school children, during last year, accumulated in the school savings deposit accounts the sum of $328,712, according to the statement of Frederick H. Clark of the Home-land Bank, custodian of the funds. "This sum was made up by 1058 pupils, of whom 828 still have savings accumulating."

"This total represents two very comfortable homes added to the city," declared Clark, "with all that these additional homes mean in the way of good citizenship. This in itself is an achievement for the little folks to be proud of."

The school savings system was started over two years ago on a plan proposed by City Clerk Walter J. Behrman. The children deposit their savings with their teachers, who in turn deposit the funds through the principles in a central bank. The deposits are available to the children for withdrawal at any time when their savings account in ordinary banks.

WANT OLD BOARD SUED FOR RENTAL

Improvers Demand Action to Secure Return of Funds Paid for Park.

BERKELEY, March 5.—Suit for $3800 against a former board of directors was demanded of the present board at its last night's meeting by representatives of the Federation of Improvements, clubs to recover rental paid for the Dwight recreation grounds. The improvers presented letters from the district attorney's office declaring the rental was the lot contrary to law. The board decided to lay the question of its rights at the matter before the district attorney.

The former board that negotiated the lease included E. P. Lewis, president; R. J. Young, A. T. Sutherland, R. T. Crawford, Dr. J. F. Farrar and Dr. Donahue and the lease was negotiated five years ago, lapsing about a year ago. Monthly rental of $75 was paid for the lot for a period of four years. The rental money was paid in a lump sum out of the bond fund and given an O. K. by the county auditor.

The property is owned by John W. Havens. The deal was arranged for him by D. O. Mills. The park was rented only for week days, and on those days was turned over to the school children.

F. J. Martin, secretary of the Federation of Improvements, presented the argument of illegality of the deal before the board last evening. The Longfellow improvement club presented the argument of illegality of the deal before the board last evening. AEROPLANES FLY TO ESCAPE TAX Assessor and Deputy Waited, However, and Got Them.

ALAMEDA, March 5.—Chasing airplanes is the latest of the new duties that are assigned to the office of City Auditor and Assessor F. J. Croll, and he and his deputies put in a strenuous day yesterday in rounding up the birds. Croll sent one of his deputies, Frank Quigley, out early yesterday afternoon with instructions to assess the various air craft at the Alameda aviation field. In some way the news that he was coming reached the field and the air ships were not there when he arrived. Quigley smiled at what he thought would be the ease with which he would levy the assessments, and proceeded across the marsh. He had about reached the field when with a whirl of propellers eight craft took to the air, leaving the quagmire deputy bewildered upon the ground.

Quigley said that the joke was on him, and telephoned his office to the effect that the airplanes had fled. He was detailed to stay on the ground and Assessor Croll soon joined him. The two men camped on the field until the garage of the runaway aviator came out and they were forced to return. The aeroplanes were assessed from $500 to $1,000 apiece.

MEXICAN SITUATION IS TO BE CONSIDERED

BERKELEY, March 5.—Professor Henry Morse Stephens will preside at tomorrow evening's meeting of the University Parliament in Hearst Hall, when the subject, "Intervention in Mexico," will be considered.

The leaders of the discussion are Dr. David Barrows, Professor Thomas H. Reed, J. C. Sweet '12, V. F. Collins '13. Others who are interested will participate. It will not be a set debate, but will be an exchange of opinion on the subject. The public will be welcome.

BOARD OF EDUCATION HAS BUSINESS MEETING

ALAMEDA, March 5.—At a meeting of the board of education last night, the proposition building a new school in the assembly hall of the Washington school was up for discussion, and it was decided to hold the repairs over until the summer vacation. Arrangements were made for the construction in the hall, of a room to house the new moving pictures.

The regular amount of current routine business was transacted and bills against the department audited.

CROSS CADETS WORKING FOR MILITARY HOP

Arrangements are being completed for the concert and military hop to be held by the members of Company N, First regiment, League of the Cross Cadets, of this city in the gymnasium of St. Mary's college on Wednesday evening, March 26.

The concert will start at 8:15 and will be given by the regimental band of San Francisco, whose fame as the finest amateur organization of its kind has reached all parts of the state, will be under the direction of Major Williams. It will be the first opportunity that the lovers of music of Oakland will have to hear the band in their home city, and the announcement of the coming entertainment has caused much interest to be taken in the affair.

Dancing will follow the closing of the musical program, a well known orchestra has been secured for the second part of the program. Two well known local soloists will render selections during the evening.

The proceeds of the affair will be used for the remodeling of the present armory, in which the company has been located for eight years, and which must be enlarged to accommodate the increase of membership.

In order to secure the necessary funds an "ad" program has been arranged.

The following committee is working for the success of the affair: Lieutenant George Courtney, chairman; Sergeant J. J. Fazakerley, Sergeant J. J. Carey, Sergeant J. J. Smith, Corporal J. O. Walsh and Privates J. Dahl, H. L'Heureux and J. J. Riordan.

CAPT. AMUNDSEN TO BE SPEAKER

Noted Explorer Will Tell Oaklanders of His Dash to the Pole.

Captain Raold Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole and the Northwest passage, will lecture on his dash to the southern end of the earth under the auspices of the local Norwegians who have made arrangements for his appearing at the Macdonough theater on the evening of Saturday, March 22. Amundsen's talk will be illustrated with motion pictures and the proceeds will be used to fund a fund for another expedition to the far north. On his next trip Amundsen plans to drift across the north pole, following the polar currents, and anticipates that the trip will take from five to seven years.

The committee in charge of the lecture consist of the following: John Kringsen, chairman; Rev. E. S. Belgum, secretary, and L. W. Anderson treasurer. These men, together with Henry Anderson and L. Johnson, comprise the reception committee.

Professor S. Holway of the University of California will preside and Commissioner Harry S. Anderson of Oakland will make a short address.

Captain Amundsen will probably participate in the Charter Day exercises at the University of California in the forenoon of March 22. He will also, during his lecture, speak of the struggle made by Captain R. Scott, who reached the South Pole about six weeks after Amundsen, and the untimely death with the members of his party.

BERKELEY WOMEN TO SPEAK

ALBANY, March 5.—A public meeting, addressed by Mrs. Mary R. Colledge and Miss Blanche Moore, of Berkeley, representing the California Civic League, will be held this evening at the Albany school house under the auspices of the Albany Mothers' Club. The speakers will tell of the efforts being made to secure the enactment of the re-ignition act by the California legislature and of the need for such legislation.

ALAMEDA PERSONALS

ALAMEDA, March 7.—The German Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon in Unity Circle hall on Grand street. The hostesses for the affair will be Mrs. L. Raachen, Mrs. Wilhelm Raubinger, Mrs. N. Reinecker, Mrs. A. A. Schneider and Mrs. R. W. Putzman. Mrs. H. A. Hebard, curator of the museum, will give a lecture before the parish workers of Christ church on Friday afternoon, speaking on sacred music.

Leonard Reinhold Koller now with the Fourth Infantry at Galveston, in readiness for emergency service in Mexico, is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Kelley of this city, and is a nephew of Dr. Mary Deano Fletcher.

Edwin Siegfried will be host Friday evening for a musical evening to be given at his home on Central avenue. He will entertain a score of friends with a program of music numbers. The young man is a talented pianist and will contribute several of the instruments and numbers to be given during the evening.

Mrs. Vaughan Garside entertained the Thursday Luncheon and Card club yesterday afternoon. The club meeting this winter was advanced from Thursday to Tuesday after this week. The date of meeting will be changed back to the day of the week first selected.

MAIL CARRIERS HERO OF RUNAWAY

Fred Schulte of Alameda Saves Two Helpless Children From Injury.

ALAMEDA, March 5.—Mail Carrier Fred Schulte, a member of the Alameda postoffice carrier force, made a daring stop of a runaway horse on Santa Clara avenue yesterday afternoon. In the wagon were two little Japanese boys, six and four years of age, the sons of a Park street Japanese fruit and vegetable dealer.

The horse started from in front of the father's store on north Park street, ran west on Lincoln to Oak, south on Oak to Santa Clara and again west on Santa Clara for three-quarters of a mile.

The eldest boy stuck bravely in the seat and clung to the lines. The youngest boy was in the back of the wagon and hung desperately to the seat rail.

The horse passed autos, wagons and street cars safely despite the animal's headlong flight.

Schulte was on his regular Santa Clara avenue delivery and noticed the runaway approaching. As soon as he realized two helpless children were in the wagon, Schulte dropped his heavy mail pouch and prepared for action. He managed to climb in the wagon over the endgate and soon brought the horse to a stop.

The horse's wild plunging and kicking later was convincing proof that had the horse run on unobstructed a short distance he would have killed the children.

A number of spectators, including several women, saw Schulte's brave action and were quick to appreciate his good work. One of the women caught up his heavy mail bag and carried it down the avenue to where the mail carrier was trying to quiet the excited horse. The two little Japanese children took their exciting venture bravely and their father had driven the horse home and lifted them from the wagon they showed a strong inclination to stay in the vehicle for another ride.

JAPANESE PASSES AVIATOR'S TESTS

Alameda Aviation Field Scene of Workout for Airman's License.

ALAMEDA, March 5.—G. T. Takasaw, the Japanese aviator who qualified for an aviator's pilot license yesterday at the Alameda aviation field, made test flights before J. C. Irvine, vice-president of the Pacific Aero club, and acting official of the Takasaw test. The aviator was in the air twice, once for 11 minutes and again for 14 minutes. The two principal maneuvers required were the cutting in air of five figure eights and landing within 150 feet of a set stake.

Takasaw cut 10 figure eights during his two tests and landed within 20 feet of the stake. A portion of the time the aviator was in the low lying clouds. He was confused slightly in starting to descend through having to pick up his landing point after dropping through the clouds. He had no trouble in making a perfect landing.

Takasaw still has to take an expert's test before being a fully qualified aviator. In addition to the pilot's tests as taken by Takasaw yesterday, an expert aviator must make a sustained flight of 50 miles, 25 miles in one direction and 25 miles returning, and must perform from an altitude of 2500 feet, with his engine cut off.

Takasaw made his tests in Harvey Crawford's two passenger biplane. Later Crawford carried three passengers into the air for tests. The passengers were A. R. Curtis, draftsman for the aero club; L. S. Ellis, a mechanic, and C. Fraser, an official of the Panama Lumber company. Fraser was carried twice about the field, over the estuary and a portion of Oakland and also carried over his own place of business at a height of 2000 feet.

U. S. CIVIL SERVICE TO EXAMINE IN S. F.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that the examinations listed below will be held in San Francisco at an early date.

GRADUATES LEAVE SCHOOL FOR HIGHER PURSUITS

MISS MARIE SWANSON. MISS HAZEL KING.

MISS VEIRA GALE.

HAYWARD, March 5.—The graduating class of 1911 of Hayward High School—the largest in the history of the school—has already made its mark in various spheres of activity. A number of the pupils have adopted professional careers, while the majority are going through college. The class was the last taught by Dr. Gamble, the former head of the high school.

Three women graduates of the 1911 class who are putting their school training to good account are Miss Marie Swanson, Miss Hazel King and Miss Veira Gale. Miss Swanson has adopted a scholastic career, and is teacher in a district school twelve miles east of Livermore. She took her teaching certificate a short time after graduating from the school.

After graduating at the High School Miss Hazel King went to the State University in Berkeley, and is making rapid progress in her studies. Miss Veira Gale is now attending a State Normal School in San Francisco.

T. B. B. HERD TO HOLD BANQUET MARCH 25

Arrangements have been completed for the first annual banquet and ball of T. B. B. Herd, which will be held at the Hotel Oakland Tuesday evening, March 25. The committee of arrangements consists of J. Trester, W. J. Bacus, M. Beck, J. T. Gibson and W. G. Storm, Jr.

The local branch of T. B. B. Herd was organized in this city three months ago by a number of prominent Moose and meetings are held weekly. The organization is strictly a social one and many interesting events have been planned for the future. The regalia of the Herd consists of Tuxedo coat, red plush vest, gold embroidered sash and fez.

ENGINEER TO FAVOR AMERICAN MATERIAL

JERUSALEM, March 5.—An American consul reports that an engineer who is to build a road in the country in which he is located is going to use American materials, and that he will get in touch with him. Carrying out the contract will necessitate the purchase of rails, angle bars, bolts, nuts, cement for bridge and concrete work, lumber, corrugated sheet piling, etc. The engineer is a native of the United States and has been in the country for some time. He will be in the country for some time. He will be in the country for some time.

PIONEER LAWYER CALLED BY DEATH

Sylvester C. Simpson Dies at Berkeley Home; Wrote Law Notes.

BERKELEY, March 5.—Sylvester C. Simpson, a member of a pioneer family of the Pacific coast, died at his Berkeley home Monday evening after long illness, aged 63.

From 1877 until a few years ago, when failing health compelled his retirement, Mr. Simpson held a position of enviable eminence among the legal fraternity of San Francisco, first as one of the chief editors of that standard series of annotated law reports, the American Decisions, and later in association with the firm of Garber, Bohl & Bishop. His annotations and his briefs in some of the most famous California cases will stand as legal classics.

Mr. Simpson was a Missourian by birth. In 1848 his parents, ex-leamed their way to Oregon. Soon after graduation from Willamette university at Salem he was called to the chair of classical languages and later became its dean of medical jurisprudence. He married a graduate of the same institution, Mary Frances McFarland.

Engaging actively in the practice of his profession he was also conspicuous as a lecturer and orator on local and national topics. He was a member of the Oregon bar, when the party was a far-looker hope in his state, he laid aside his practice and edited one of the democratic papers through a brilliant campaign.

Of the seven children who survive him three are actively connected with the San Francisco Journal—Lynn C. Simpson of the Chronicle staff, Kirk L. Simpson of the Associated Press, and Ernest S. Simpson, editor of the Call.

CONSTIPATED, BILIOUS, HEADACHY LIVER TORPID? CASCARETS SURE

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, constipation, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight with Cascarets. Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets sweeten and regulate your stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and constipation poison from the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel bully and cheerful for months. Don't forget the children.

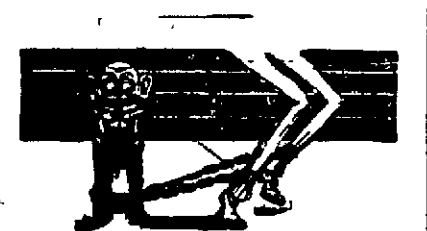

CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP.

"MALICIOUS MISCHIEF" TRIAL IS POSTPONED

SAN LEANDRO, March 5.—The case of Mrs. Irene Santos, charged by John Garcia with malicious mischief, appeared before Judge Toffelmier and a jury today to answer to the charge. On the request of her agent, Attorney Frank Carr, the trial was postponed for another week.

The case has arisen out of the fall of a nine-foot fence between the Garcia's house and that occupied by the Santos woman. Garcia alleges that Mrs. Santos had a hand in aiding the fence to collapse. The defendant denies this and blames a high wind as the cause of the fence falling. A large number of witnesses have been cited to appear and the neighbor's dispute should be productive of interesting evidence.

Wan, Weary and Worn Out

If You Feel Fagged to a Finish and Utterly Used Up Here is Quick Relief.

Half the people you meet complain of weary muscles, stagnant brain, fagged nerves, and a wonderful desire to lay down and just quit. Most of these people have been using nervines that spasmodically flare up the nerves only to die down again, as die they must. Avoid nerve stimulants. Bear in mind that this worn out feeling is due to poor blood, to bacteria in the water you drink; to the multiplying of destructive germs in the blood faster than they can be exterminated by the white corpuscles; and to what is known as auto-toxicity, that condition where the venous or impure blood accumulates faster than it can be replaced by the red arterial blood.

If you feel played out go to any drug store and ask for a bottle of S. S. Swift's Sure Specific. Here is a remedy that gets at work in a twinkling; it just naturally rushes right into your blood, poisons germs right and left, up and down and sideways.

You feel better at once, not from a stimulant, not from the action of drugs, but from the rational effect of a natural medicine just as active and just as timely as to a man who has been lost in the mountains, is about starved and comes across a settler just cooking a savory meal of good honest beef. Do not neglect to get a bottle of S. S. Swift's Sure Specific. It will save you from feeling just as worn out as it is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Send for their free book telling of the many strange conditions that afflict the human family by reason of impoverished blood.

SINGLE TAX AND BOND ISSUE FAIL

Seattle Voters Down Amendments and Curb Proposed Expenditures.

SEATTLE, March 5.—Complete returns from two-thirds of the precincts in the city show that of the charter amendments and proposals submitted to the voters yesterday, single tax, the municipal bank plan, the public market plan and the Griffiths bill to restrict the power of the police were defeated.

The police bill was one of the principal issues of the election. It forbade arrests and forcible entry without warrants except in a few specified cases.

Of the $2,475,000 bond issues voted on only two carried—those providing $425,000 for an addition to the municipal light and power plant and $300,000 for improvement of the water system.

A settlement with the street car company similar to that drafted by Walter L. Fisher and accepted in Chicago also was favored by the voters, although opposed by Mayor Cotten and the advocates of municipal ownership.

BURGLAR PLUNGES THROUGH GLASS DOOR

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—A burglar surprised at work in the grocery of L. Moran, 800 Post street, at 5:30 this morning, literally dived through the glass panel of the front door. He succeeded in escaping, although pursued for several blocks. Moran, who sleeps in the rear, heard the man at work and came stealthily upon him, hoping to surprise and capture him. When the robber turned and found himself discovered he plunged through the pane. He had taken $5 in coin from the cash register and a box of cigars. Blood stains on the sidewalk showed that he had been cut in his escape.

SAN LEANDRO BUSY WITH IMPROVEMENTS

SAN LEANDRO, March 5.—Street improvement schemes are engaging the attention of the Board of Trustees, and several suggestions for improvement were made at the meeting of the board. The trustees are bent on making San Leandro a model city so far as the condition of the streets goes. The citizens have been requested to take care of their sidewalks, and to keep everything in trim order. New avenues will be opened and main thoroughfares will be widened, notably East Fourteenth street.

SCHOOL TEACHER WANTS MAIDEN NAME RESTORED

MARTINEZ, March 5.—Mrs. Ethel W. Salt this afternoon filed suit for divorce from Stephen Salt on the grounds of failure to provide. Mrs. Salt, who is a teacher in the Covell district school, sets forth in her complaint that she was compelled to provide the necessities of life, besides making the payments on a ranch which the couple bought shortly after their marriage, also to pay for the cost of pinning the ranch while her husband sat in idleness. She further asks for $50 a month alimony and permission to resume her maiden name.

LATEST NEWS FROM OUTSIDE TOWNS

WOMEN OF HAYWARD TO PLAY PART IN COMING BRILLIANT BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

GROUP OF HAYWARD GIRLS WHO WILL AID IN MAKING COMING BLOSSOM FESTIVAL GREATEST OF SUCCESSSES.

HAYWARD, March 5.—Preparations for Hayward's mammoth festival are being made on an unprecedented scale. The citizens in a body are lending their aid financially and otherwise to promote the smooth running of the celebration. The success of the festival will be a citizen's triumph, and above all a triumph for Hayward women.

Over three hundred women belonging to the various civic organizations in Hayward have banded together to do the honors of the city in the way of providing refreshments for the thousands of visitors who will crowd Hayward during festival week. A large grassy park has been placed at the disposal of the refreshment committee, and here refreshment tents will be erected, and every provision made for the comfort of the visitors.

While those who come to participate in the celebration are requested to bring their own lunch, the committee is to serve out lunches at cost price. FESTIVAL COMMITTEE BUSY. Meanwhile the festival committee is busy adding new features to the already long list of entertaining spectacles to which the visitor will be treated. On the last day of the carnival Aviator Christofferson will give exhibition flights. The Portland Coast League baseball team will play exhibition games. An exciting feature will be the auto polo game, Hayward being the fourth city on the coast to introduce the sport.

The prospective baby show is proving popular with Hayward mothers, and a big list of entries has already been drawn up. A stimulus has been added to the baby competition by the gift of the handsome silver cup from President Taft.

ACRES OF BLOSSOM LAND. The idea of the festival is to draw attention to the beauties of Hayward and surroundings. There is something like 2000 acres of blossom-land in and around Hayward, and the visitor seated in an auto placed at his disposal by the festival committee will have an opportunity of admiring the beauties of the district.

Among those who will play a prominent part are: Miss Pearl Brunner, Miss Burnette Parks, Miss Marie Meyer, Miss Anna Abrams, Miss Irene Fernbelton, Miss Katie Horreke, Miss Corinne Bills, Miss Clara Silva, Miss Lorna Robinson, Miss May Smith, Miss Elizabeth Maceo, Miss Edith Allen, Miss Ruth Cooper, Miss Iba Rogers, Miss Miriam Browning and Miss Fannie Fleisher.

The following is the program as partially outlined for blossom festival week: Saturday, March 22—Decorated automobile parade in San Francisco and other bay cities.

Sunday, March 23—Auto polo game at the Hayward athletic park.

Monday, March 24—Free auto excursion to visitors through blossom land.

Tuesday, March 25—Free auto excursion to visitors through blossom land.

Wednesday, March 26—Big baby show, including decorated baby buggy parade by mothers of the babies entered in the contest.

Thursday, March 27—Five-mile road race under the auspices of the Hayward Athletic club, participated in by all the clubs about the bay.

Baseball game between the Portland Coast League team and a picked Hayward team.

Friday, March 28—Free excursion to visitors by autos through blossom land.

Saturday, March 29—Floral parade of decorated vehicles through Hayward streets, in which all the surrounding towns will participate. Valuable prizes to be contested for.

Literary exercises—Speeches to be delivered by Mayor Ralph and Mayor Mott, and probably Governor Johnson.

Baseball game between the Portlands and a picked local team.

Auto polo game at the Hayward athletic park.

Sunday, March 30—Auto polo game at the park.

Monday, March 31—Auto polo game at the park.

Tuesday, March 3—The athletic committee of Hayward National Guard, met last night and decided to have Private Meara and Joe Mendonca of Hayward wrestle for the state middleweight championship. The match will probably come off about the end of this month.

Meara was to have wrestled Mendonca for the championship sometime ago, but was prevented by illness from entering into the bout. Jack Sattler of Newark took Meara's place, and was defeated by Mendonca in a friendly match.

Considerable interest is being taken in local sporting circles in the forthcoming bout. Both men are fanned by their supporters, Mendonca showing endurance and knowledge of the game in his bout with Sattler.

EDITOR OF PITTSBURG WEDS BERKELEY GIRL

MARTINEZ, March 5.—Joseph E. Tracy, editor of the Pittsburg Post of Pittsburg, Cal., was married Monday in San Francisco to Miss Georgiana J. Stack of Berkeley. Tracy recently purchased the Post. For some time he had been connected with the Byron Times.

HAYWARD TO HAVE NEW FIRE HOUSE

Ordinance Will Call for $14,000 Fire Bond Election Next Month.

HAYWARD, March 5.—The town trustees at their meeting tonight will pass an ordinance calling a $14,000 fire bond election, to provide a new fire house, engine, and fire signalling apparatus. Keen interest is being taken by the citizens in the forthcoming election, and the general feeling seems to be in favor of raising the money for modern fire fighting apparatus. The election will probably be called for next month.

HAND BADLY HURT IN SECOND ACCIDENT

LIVERMORE, March 5.—Elijah Teeter, who recently entered the employment of the Niles Rock, Sand and Gravel Company, lost part of his left hand in an accident, several weeks after he had his foot badly crushed while working for the same company.

Teeter had started a gravel car by means of a pinch bar, and attempted to stop it in the same manner. The bar flew up and struck him a violent blow on the hand, tearing loose the tendons.

WEAPONS ARE STOLEN FROM MOTOR LAUNCH

SAN LEANDRO, March 5.—C. Johnson of 242 Joaquin avenue, San Leandro, reports that his motor launch lying at the Park street bridge was broken into and a rifle and shotgun stolen from the cabin. Entrance had been gained into the cabin by smashing open the cabin window. The cabin had been thoroughly ransacked, but only the two guns were stolen.

The matter has been reported to the police, who suspect two boys of the theft. These boys were seen near the launch carrying guns.

SUDDEN DEATH OF OLD FRUITVALE RESIDENT

FRUITVALE, March 5.—Mrs. Amanda Willoughby, one of the oldest residents of Fruitvale, died suddenly yesterday, at her residence, 4670 Edison street. Mrs. Willoughby took ill and died before the arrival of a doctor.

She was seventy-five years of age and a native of Indiana. Deceased was a widow, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Watkins.

The funeral will take place tomorrow from the parlors of A. A. Barber, undertaker, to Evergreen cemetery.

MUSIC TAUGHT FREE

Home Instruction
Special Offer to Our Readers

In order to advertise and introduce their home study music lessons in every locality the International Institute of Music of New York will give free to our readers a complete course of instruction for either Piano, Organ, Violin, Mandolin, Guitar, Banjo, Cello, Brass Instruments or Sight Singing. In return they simply ask that you recommend their Institute to your friends after you learn to play.

You may not know one note from another; yet, by their wonderfully simple and thorough method, you can soon learn to play. If you are an advanced player you will receive special instruction.

The lessons are sent weekly. They are so simple and easy that they are recommended to any person or little child who can read English. Photographs and drawings make everything plain. Under the Institute's free tuition offer you will be asked to pay only a very small amount (averaging 14 cents a week) to cover postage and the necessary sheet music.

No one should overlook this wonderful offer. Tell your friends about it—show this article to them.

The International Institute has successfully taught others and can successfully teach you, even if you know absolutely nothing whatever about music. The lessons make everything clear.

Write today for the free booklet, which explains everything. It will convince you and cost you nothing. Address your letter or postal card to International Institute of Music, 98 Fifth Ave., Dept. 276 C, New York, N. Y.

Because I put an advertisement in the paper, as all modern, successful business men do, does that lessen my skill as a dentist? Or, if any good dentist you know of, should put an advertisement in a paper, would that make him a poor dentist? Just mail this over in your name of thought.

FOUR GENERATIONS OF ROWELLS GATHER TO DINE

A dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Rowell at their home, 656 Polier street, last Monday evening was the occasion of one of the most interesting reunions held in this city for a long time. Four generations of the Rowell family were represented and including the doll five were present.

The dinner was given in honor of Rev. Joseph Rowell, who came from his home in San Francisco to attend.

Rev. Mr. Rowell, who for years was pastor of the Mariners' church in San Francisco and is now retired, is 83 years old. With him at the dinner table were his son, J. C. Rowell, librarian of the University of California; his grandson, C. F. Rowell, and his great granddaughter, Little Evelyn Rowell.

The Rowell family gathers every year upon Rev. Mr. Rowell's birthday, who is one of the pioneers of the state and for many years took a leading part in the religious life of San Francisco.

NEW ROAD THROUGH CONTRA COSTA CO.

State Highway Commission Plans Road From Martinez to Oakland.

SACRAMENTO, March 5.—The State Highway Commission ordered today a reconnaissance, preparatory to a survey to be made of a provisional route in Contra Costa county from Martinez to Oakland. This route will connect Sacramento valley arteries of travel converging at Benicia.

The proposed route begins at Martinez and extends substantially parallel to the coast line on the highlands back of the water front to a point near Port Costa, thence via Richmond to Crockett, with branch lines to Port Costa and Vallejo Junction.

The resolution ordering the reconnaissance was voted after a hearing given to Warren H. McFadden of Pinole and A. B. Coleman of Martinez, who presented petitions from residents of Crockett, Port Costa, Martinez, Pinole and other cities asking a survey.

WORK PROMISED SOON.
Following the submission by Los Angeles banker a few weeks ago of a $100,000 highway bond, the Highway Commission awarded a contract today to John D. Marsh of Los Angeles for construction of a section of the coast route in Los Angeles county from the east line of Rancho El Cienega to Calabasas, ten miles long. The estimate cost of this section, including the contractor's bid of $55,000 and material to be furnished by the state, is $77,519.

The members of the commission say as soon as surveys and estimates are made contracts will be let in each of the counties bonds have been authorized.

BIG BOND SALE MADE.
Today's sale of Highway bonds makes a total of $1,200,000 sold since January 1 and a total of $3,200,000 sold of the entire $10,000,000 bond issue.

Another sale of $500,000 Highway bonds will be held early in April. It is expected that this issue of bonds will be sold largely to bondholders of San Francisco, Santa Clara and San Diego counties.

A delegation of twenty-three persons appeared before the commission in advocacy of the proposed route from Polson to Placerville via Clarksville, Shingler Springs and El Dorado. The delegation opposed the Green Valley route and said that the route now surveyed via Clarksville would serve more people, connect with more roads, and eliminate a greater number of bridges and grades.

ASYLUM OFFICERS KEEP EYE ON THAW

Not Allowed to Consult With Counsel Except in Other's Presence.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Darius Kennedy, counsel for Harry K. Thaw, in the latter's new move to obtain his freedom, who visited Clarence White's lawyer at the Manhattan State Asylum for the Criminal Insane yesterday to confer with Thaw regarding the writ of habeas corpus proceedings that will come up in the Supreme Court Thursday, declared that he was not allowed to talk with Thaw except in the presence of witnesses.

He said he would apply for a Supreme Court order directing the hospital authorities to allow him to confer with Thaw in seclusion. Dr. Kennedy said he was told that the order for Thaw not to be allowed to receive anyone unless a third person was present, was issued by Colonel J. F. Scott, State superintendent of prisons.

THOUSANDS GATHER TO DISCUSS RAISE

BOSTON, March 5.—Several thousand telegraphers, townsmen, switchmen and station agents gathered today for a conference here with officials of the Maine Central, Boston & Hartford and the Central New England Railroad lines, over a request for a ten per cent increase in pay.

The conference will be the last of a series covering several weeks. If the railroad officials do not grant the request of the men the union leaders say they will next take the matter to President Charles S. Mellon of the New Haven.

SUMMER SEASON FOR IDORA PARK

Skating, Coasters, Music, Opera and Open Air Acts for Patrons.

In less than three weeks or to be exact, on Saturday, March 22, Idora park will open its gates for the summer season of 1913. The opening of Idora is always an important event among the lovers of open air amusements and the big park's tens of thousands of patrons will this season find more diversions than ever before.

The management has determined to cater to every taste and there will be something entirely new for each particular class of patrons. For those who are devoted to skating the demand has already been supplied by the placing of a new floor in Idora's mammoth rink. If the amusement lover be among those who fancy the sensational in riding devices he will find the new giant coaster or "race through the clouds" a stupendous structure 65 feet in the air which will whisk the passenger for a distance of over a mile at a speed frequently exceeding 90 miles an hour.

For the lover of the best in popular and classical music there will be bands of available European reputation and all new to the Pacific coast, a season of grand opera and a period of comic opera with the ever welcome extravaganzas in the amphitheater.

For those patrons who favor the big and startling open air acts there will be even more sensational than any yet presented at Idora. In a word "the Park Beautiful" will offer a program for 1913 such as has never before been equaled in the history of western amusement gardens. For, in addition to the many entirely new features, a number of the concessions already known to patrons will undergo notable changes.

The "Shooting the rapids" ride is an instance of this remodeling process. This will be the more attractive with the addition of an old mill with its wheel and mill race.

A small army of more than 100 workmen are now busy making ready the scores of surprises which will greet those who visit Idora on opening day, March 22. It is the time and amusement lovers are already beginning to memorize the date.

BOY IS STRANGLING ON TOWEL IN WASHROOM

NORTH BEND, Wash., March 5.—Earl Thrasher, 14 years old, son of C. E. Thrasher, was accidentally strangled to death by a roller towel yesterday.

Mrs. Thrasher found the boy's body in the washroom with the towel twisted tightly around his neck. Judging from the position of the body the coroner believed that the boy was playfully running around a circle with his head through the towel when he fell and was strangled.

HONOLULU DISTRICT ATTORNEY RESIGNS

HONOLULU, March 5.—Robert W. Brackens, United States district attorney at Honolulu, forwarded his resignation to Washington today to the change in administration. Brackens has been a life-long Republican and desired to remain loyal to his party. His example was not emulated by any of the other federal officials. President Roosevelt appointed Brackens to the island post in 1902.

NEWSPAPER MAN ILL.

STOCKTON, March 5.—William Martin, a well-known newspaper man of this city, is ill with typhoid fever, contracted in Sacramento a week ago. He was brought home by friends and placed under the care of physicians. His condition is considered serious.

His Stomach Troubles Over.
Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your troubles, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over. For sale at Osgood Bros. Drug Stores."

MARINE FIREMAN LEAVES PATHETIC NOTE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—"How it cuts me to leave you," wrote John Ryan, a marine fireman, last night as he turned on the two gas jets in his room at 240 East street, and lay down for his last sleep. He was found by a friend, Thomas Dixon, this morning and an ambulance summoned from the Harbor Hospital. Steward Walsh pronounced Ryan dead and the coroner took charge of the remains. A short note found near the body reads:

"So long Dixon and Jack Costa, the only friends I have got outside of sister and mother. How it cuts me to leave you. Don't forget. JOHN RYAN."

ALASKA WOULD KEEP ALL JOBS AT HOME

JUNEAU, Alaska, March 5.—Resolution adopted by President William H. Harrison, recommending the construction of railroads along the lines recommended by the Alaska railway commission and to appoint only bona fide residents of Alaska to government positions in the territory were adopted by the territorial senate yesterday.

FROM GOLF LINKS TO OFFICE

MANY a man would be unable to enjoy the healthful exercise of golf if the telephone did not keep him in touch with his business.

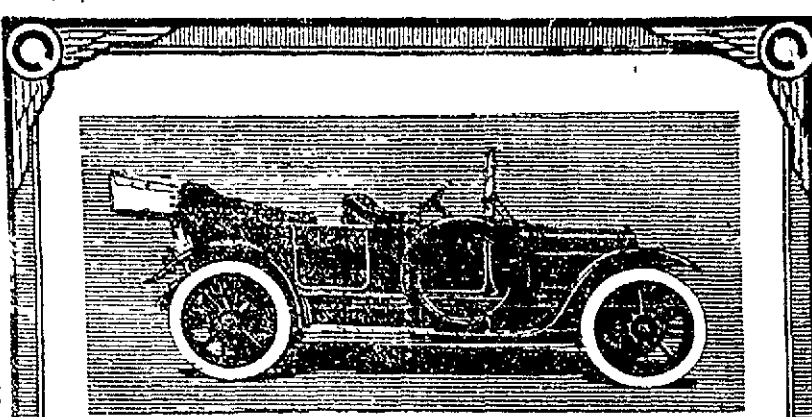

A word over the wire saves him an hour's delay in leaving the office. There is another reason.

The busy man's day is made shorter by the Bell Service, which brings him in instant communication, not only with his fellow townsmen, but with correspondents in distant cities.

The Bell System provides universal service to meet the needs of all users.

What Isn't Saved See the Case Forty

The Case is the car of hidden values amounting to several hundreds of dollars a car, in addition to the usual face values that anyone can see. Ask about the roller push rods that are found elsewhere only in the highest priced cars. See the radiator used on cars in the $5,000 class—on this car at $2,200. Then take our word—the word of a $40,000.000 concern with a seventy-year reputation at stake—for the following hidden essentials to car life.

We could make large savings on the cost of our motors by using cheaper materials. We could save on our clutches, transmissions, drive shafts, wheels, axles and in other vital parts. We could cut our assembling cost in two, and this cost is one of the greatest. But the Case wouldn't then be good for a lifetime. We put in these extra values to make it a car to keep.

OUR ADVANTAGE

We have been making the finest machinery in our line for the past seventy years. We created no new business when we began the manufacture of automobiles. We had all our agents before a car was turned out. We saved that expense, added no officers, sales manager's or advertising department salaries, no office rent or other overhead. We saved on systems, on costly experiments.

We put all these savings into the car. We are selling these cars to old customers, some of whom have dealt with us for fifty years. You know we will put the best we know into them. Don't miss the Case Forty. Note its style and equipment. Take our word for the hidden values until you have proved them out on the road. See also, the Case Thirty at $1,500.

CASE FORTY

Westinghouse electric starter; Westinghouse electric lighting system for all lamps; side and tail lamps, combination oil and electric; Warner Auto-Meter; electric horn; rain vision ventilating windshield; English mohair top, side curtains and cover; 37x4 1/2 inch tires; Firestone universal quick-detachable demountable rims; 124-inch wheel base; three-quarter elliptic springs; 4 1/2 x 5 1/2 inch cylinders; Brown-Lipe transmission; Timken full floating axle; Rayfield carburetor with dash adjustment; Bosch magnet; dual system single point ignition. RELEASED ON CHARGE AND THEN REARRESTED

REDDING, March 5.—After having been released on a technicality on a charge of having drawn a worthless check on a Los Angeles bank, Theodore Franklin was rearrested here on a charge of having cashed forged checks in Santa Cruz. The Los Angeles check was drawn on the Night & Day Bank of Los Angeles. There is no such bank there, but there is an All Night and Day Bank in Los Angeles. The omission of the "All" saved Franklin from prosecution.

BUSINESS MEN BEFORE VICE COMMISSION

CHICAGO, March 5.—Five widely known merchants—James Simpson, George Lytton, Ray M. Shyne, Edwin F. Mandel and Edward J. Lehmann—were subpoenaed today to testify before the state senate vice commission which is investigating, among other things, wages paid girls in large department stores. It is said the heads of several mail order houses will be subpoenaed within the next few days. Girl employees of stores and mail order houses are to be called to testify.

Your Family Physician Is Always Welcome

At any time, unannounced, in any Painless Parker office. Bring him with you. He will find everything thoroughly sanitary from one end to the other. He will also find that every instrument is immediately sterilized as soon as used just as carefully as is done by himself in a capital operation in any up-to-date hospital. He will find a full force of trained nurses busy safeguarding my patients against possible infection by every method which he uses to enforce perfect sanitation and sterilization.

Your family physician will also find that every Painless Parker office has a full force of graduated Surgical Dentists, properly registered and licensed to practice under the state laws, the same as he is. More than that, he will find specialists in every department who have been taught my Painless Method, and who have become highly proficient because they are daily doing the kind of dental work of which they have made a particular study.

But, more than all this, your family physician will find in all my offices a harmless local anesthetic which I discovered 20 years ago and have been using ever since, and which enables me to perform any operation known to dental surgery ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN and WITHOUT injurious after effects. I make this anesthetic myself, and I know what it contains. I offer $1000 to any one who can show a single case of injurious after effects from the use of my anesthetic. CONSULTATION FREE.

HEART TRIBUNE'S PAGE for WOMEN HOME

Society

CHARMING setting for affairs just now is the Claremont Country Club, with its spring-like environs of newly-budding trees and beds of bright flowers, and the view over the rolling hills green with the color of spring. Nearly every afternoon sees some congenial group there for cards and tea, with more friends dropping in about the tea hour to greet the pleasant groups. Among the larger affairs at the club this week was the bridge party given by Miss Dorothy Taylor and Miss Cleo Posey this afternoon, when they entertained about two score friends in honor of two girls who will be among the post-Easter brides, Miss Madeline Clay and Miss Grace Downey. Quantities of daffodils effectively decorated the rooms, where twelve tables were set for the games. Among those who shared the hospitality of the attractive hostesses were Mrs. Jacob Green Jackson, Mrs. Frank C. Jackson, Mrs. Maurice Walsh, Mrs. Frederick Warrum, Mrs. Lorraine Langstroth, Mrs. Harold Baxter, Mrs. Jack Van Sicken, Miss Madeline Clay, Miss Grace Downey, Miss Myra Hall, Miss Marie McHenry, Miss Jeanne Farrell, Miss Eliza McMullen, Miss Pussey Creed, Miss Christine McNab, Miss Lulette Maunval, Miss Elizabeth Orrick, Miss Ethel Palmanteer, Miss Helen Coogan, Miss Marjorie Coogan, Miss Lilla Lovell, Miss Fyvie Lovell, Miss Dorothy Telf, Miss Bina Mosley, Miss Elizabeth Baum, Miss Grace Layman, Miss Vera A. Hamilton, Miss Adams, Miss Helen Acker, Miss Dorothy Boyle, Miss Lella Kenna.

MRS. PETER S. CROOP, A POPULAR YOUNG MATRON OF SOCIETY CIRCLES.—Scharz Photo.

FOR ENGAGED GIRLS. Miss Eslet Farnum will entertain a number of the buds and belles in honor of Miss Madeline Clay and Miss Grace Downey, two engaged girls who are being complimented with a round of social affairs during the pre-nuptial days. Miss Farnum has arranged for the next Friday afternoon at her home.

INFORMAL AFTERNOON. Mrs. Tyler Henshaw entertained informally yesterday afternoon, a congenial group of friends gathered at her Vernon Heights residence for cards. Mrs. Henshaw returned with her husband a few days ago from a short stay in Southern California, where they made the tour of the popular resorts.

AFFAIRS FOR TRAVELER. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Forsythe Williamson are planning a summer trip to Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Wm. Knowles, who will leave Sunday for a three-months' tour of Europe with Mrs. Charles Sutor of San Francisco. The Williamsons will entertain at their home in Hillside avenue, and an informal dinner will follow the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. William Edie also planning an affair in compliment to Mrs. Knowles.

BRIDGE CLUB TODAY. Mrs. Arthur L. Adams was one of the hostesses today, entertaining the members of one of the smaller exclusive card clubs with which she is identified. Tea was served at the conclusion of the games. Among the society matrons who compose the membership of the club are Mrs. A. C. Posey, Mrs. Guy C. Earl, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. E. D. York, Mrs. James A. Johnson, Mrs. A. L. Adams, Mrs. J. R. Scupham, Mrs. George M. Shaw, Mrs. Frank R. Ogden, Mrs. J. Kopp, Mrs. George W. Cope, Mrs. J. W. McJannet.

DINE AT COUNTRY CLUB. Mrs. William Knowles, who will sail for Europe with Mrs. Charles Sutor next Sunday, was the honored guest at an elaborate dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leary Barton at the Claremont Country Club last night. Covers were laid for about fifty friends of the smart set, a number of the guests crossing the bay for the occasion. Mrs. Knowles and Mr. Sutor will spend about three months in a leisurely tour of the Old World. A number of farewell affairs are being planned for the short time before their departure.

LUNCHEON TODAY. Mrs. Charles Goodrich entertained about a score of society matrons with a luncheon today at her home in East Oakland. The tables were arranged for bridge after the prettily appointed luncheon, for which the charming spring blossoms were used for decoration. Mrs. Goodrich is frequently a hostess at delightful affairs.

WEDDED LAST NIGHT. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor Anderson are now on their wedding trip to the south, where they will spend the honeymoon. Upon their return they will establish their home in this city. The wedding of Miss Ida Eugenia Girard and Mr. Anderson took place last night at the home of Mr. F. M. Mann in Webster street. Elder McBurney officiated at the ceremony, and the bride was given away by Mrs. Frank Girard, her mother. There were no attendants, only the immediate relatives and close friends being present at the service and at the wedding dinner which followed. A number of affairs are planned for the bride upon her return.

The engagement was announced at a pretty luncheon, given by Mrs. Clifford Pruett at the Hotel Oakland a week ago and came as a great surprise to the bride's numerous friends. Mrs. Anderson belongs to a pioneer family of Oakland.

UNIQUE LUNCHEON. The members of the Entre Nous Club, an organization of about a score of the younger set, entertained at an original affair recently at the home of Mrs. C. Robinson in Montclair Heights. Their guests were a number of society matrons, mostly mothers of the attractive girls who form the personnel of the club. The luncheon was planned and served by the girls themselves and proved a delightful affair, all the more enjoyable for the absence of conventionalities. The guests included Mrs. Frank T. Matthews, Mrs. Harry K. Fletcher, Mrs. Edward C. Robinson, Mrs. Miles Hoff, Mrs. A. H. Merritt, Mrs. Maurice Bleuel, Mrs. Henry Gordon Rand, Mrs. F. F. Porter and Mrs. Fredrickson.

The members of the Entre Nous are planning a dance during the early spring season at the Home Club. Among the charming girls who belong to the club are Miss Margaret Reed, Miss Ruth Fletcher, Miss Virginia Bleuel, Miss Viva Merritt, Miss Gladys Robinson, Miss Reba Hoff, Miss Doris Porter, Miss Alice Fredrickson, Miss Kathryn Goodenough and Miss Gladys Matthews.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED. Mrs. Frank Harris announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Hazel Harris, to A. Searle Gerson of Oakland. The wedding is planned to take place the early part of June.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED. Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Alice Florence Taylor of Oldfield and Roy Harrison Danforth, a newspaper man of Berkeley. Miss Taylor is the daughter of Charles H. Taylor, an engineer for the California Oilfields Company Limited. The wedding of the young couple is planned for June, and after a wedding trip they will establish their home in the college town.

LUNCHEON IN BERKELEY. Miss Edna Leonard, the attractive fiancée of W. H. Blasingame of Fresno, was the honored guest today at an elaborate luncheon at which Mrs. J. J. Schaefer was hostess at her home in Prince street. The table, at which covers were laid for fourteen, was adorned with pink carnations and maidenhair ferns. Among the guests were Mrs. Harold Watkins, Mrs. P. L. Stone, Mrs. Walker Layne, Mrs. A. F. Webster, and several others. The marriage of Miss Leonard to the Fresno vineyardist will take place on the evening of March 15 at her parents' home in Berkeley.

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Havens have returned from their honeymoon and are establishing themselves in their charming bungalow in the Piedmont hills. The wedding trip was taken by automobile to the south, with a week spent in Del Monte and some time at other fashionable resorts. There will be a large number of affairs for the pretty young bride in the near future. She is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary Fairweather, and the sister of Miss Vina Fairweather, who is winning fame in Europe as a singer.

TO RETURN AT EASTER. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Alexander are expected home about Easter after their long visit to the Hawaiian Islands, where they have enjoyed an extended sojourn among old friends and family connections. Part of the time they have been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse, here as Miss Martha Alexander. The Alexanders will reopen Gray Gables, their attractive home here, upon their return.

PIANO CLUB PICTURES. A group of piano club members are preparing for the living pictures which will be given under the auspices of the Berkeley Piano Club Saturday. There will be two performances, matinee and evening, and tickets may be obtained at the door or from members of the club. A number of society matrons and maidens will pose in the reproductions of famous paintings which are planned. Appropriate music will accompany each. Among the officers of the club are Mrs. John Galen Howard, the president, and Mrs. Rufus T. Jenkins, the vice-president, who are taking an active interest in the rehearsals.

Among the prominent matrons on the board of directors are Mrs. Thomas Rickard, Mrs. A. O. Leuschner, Mrs. L. LeComte, Mrs. S. M. Marks and Mrs. Clarence Holmes.

COLD STORAGE BRAIN BETTER THAN DOG'S

ANN ARBOR, March 5.—The transferring of the brain of a dog to replace a part of a diseased human brain, an operation said to have been performed at Michigan University, in Ann Arbor, was discussed yesterday by several surgeons in this city who have been prominently connected with new discoveries in surgery, especially with reference to the transplanting of vital organs.

While it seemed to be the general impression that such an operation might have been performed, there was a disposition on the part of the doctors to regard it as an experiment that would have little chance of success. One thing very emphatically stated by Dr. Robert Abbe of 13 West Fifth street was that the transplanted tissue, if it continued to grow and become a part of the patient, would not act as brain matter.

Dr. Robert H. M. Dawbarn, of 105 West Seventy-fourth street, professor of surgery in the Fordham University of Polytechnic, and consulting surgeon to the Polytechnic hospital and the city hospital, said that the lack of blood supply in the brain gave it the least chance of all organs in the body to respond to growth after its transplantation.

"The use of a part of a human brain, similar to that part which it was to replace," said Dr. Dawbarn, "would have been more logical than the use of the brain of a lower animal. The brain of a man who had died accidentally could have been preserved in cold storage, and still be used for transplanting purposes several months after the death of its possessor."

Dr. Otto J. Killian of 44 West Seventy-seventh street said he was inclined not to take the announcement very seriously, if the facts were as the news dispatches stated them. He said:

"Unless a very large part of the brain substance were removed, no such transplanting would be necessary, as a very considerable portion of brain tissue can be lost without causing any functional disturbance; and as for cerebral action, it is certain a dog's brain could never take the place of a man's."

Only one of two roles is ever played by love, either slave or tyrant.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS SOCIETY WOMAN SUES FOR KILLING OF HOUNDS

Mrs. Fred Merrill Asks $1350; Oakland Dog Fancier Testifies.

SAN JOSE, March 5.—How she searched the neighborhood in the vicinity of Mountain View for weeks to find her pet dog, a valuable Russian wolf hound, was told on the witness stand yesterday by Mrs. Fred Merrill, formerly Irene Sablin, a wealthy and prominent society girl of San Francisco, when she asked for $350 for the loss of her dog and $1000 exemplary damages from S. M. Smith, a Mountain View farmer, who killed the animal and buried it in the bed of a creek.

The former Miss Sablin appeared in court with her attorneys, Schwartz and Powell, and two friends, Alice M. Wilkins and Mrs. Henry Anderson Leifer of Oakland, a dog fancier, to testify as to the value of the animal and how she searched the neighborhood for it.

Smith came into court with his wife and son. Mrs. Smith declared that she found the animal stealing chickens and called to her husband to get his gun. Although she testified that she was a coyote, he says, and killed the animal. He buried it in a nearby creek.

Smith makes as his defense the common law that every man has the right to defend his property. The case was submitted on briefs before Superior Judge Gosbey.

Girl Kills Self

STOCKTON, March 5.—Made desperate by continued suffering from poor health, Clara Belle Ringer placed the muzzle of a shotgun in her mouth and pulled the trigger, killing her brain with shot. Although she was instantly dead, the girl's face and head were not mutilated.

Woodland Girl Weeds

WOODLAND, March 5.—At noon yesterday in the parlor of the Joe Craig mansion in Cross street, Miss Cassie Brown Craig became the wife of Joe Ranes Griffin, Rev. Mr. Emery, of the Christian church of Winters officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by several guests. Neither the bride nor the groom was attended. The bride was given away by her father, Joe Craig. Miss Helen Huston, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

The wedding parlor was bedecked with spring flowers set in gold baskets—hyacinths, tulips, daffodils, American beauties and Killarney roses.

Immediately after the wedding dinner the bride and groom left for San Francisco. Following a brief honeymoon they will return to make their home on the Griffin ranch near Winters. The bride is the daughter of Joe Craig. She is of the blonde type of beauty. She is an artist and a musician of ability. She attended Miss Harker's in Palo Alto and Holy Rosary academy in this city. She was a charter associate of the Beta Gamma Kappa sorority.

Joe Griffin is the son of Ben Griffin of Winters. He attended Santa Clara, where he was known as an athlete.

GIRL OF GOLDEN ANKLET ELOPES

Scranton Girl Who Created Stir in Heroine in Runaway Wedding.

ST. LOUIS, March 5.—Miss Adeline Griman, of Scranton, Pa., who created a stir in West Coast circles last November when she appeared on Union and Delmar boulevards on a Sunday morning wearing a gold anklet, eloped to Clayton Wednesday night and was married to H. R. Estes, Jr., 21 years old, a son of Mrs. D. A. Larsen, of the Albemarle hotel, and nephew of John W. Estes, manager of a life insurance company.

She and young Estes were attending a party at the Albemarle given by the youth's mother and were the chief participants in the wild making. Miss Griman was a house guest of Mrs. Larsen. Today the young pair sent a telegram to the girl's parents in Scranton, announcing the marriage.

'FAGGED-OUT' WOMEN

Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter.

Overworked, run down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Miss Richter's experience. She says: "Last winter I was completely run down and felt fagged out all the time. I was nervous and had indigestion."

One of my friends advised me to take Vinol and it has done me great good. The tired, worn-out feeling is all gone and I am strong, vigorous and well. The stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have perfect digestion. I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol. For I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as the I spent for Vinol." Marie Richter, Detroit, Mich.

Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present rugged health to the wonderful strength-giving effects of Vinol. We encourage Vinol to build up your health. It is the only tonic that does not give you a headache. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.

If Not Beautiful at 40 It's Your Own Fault

By LILLIAN RUSSELL
Copyright, 1912, by Lillian Russell.

It is not too much to say that a face drawn, gaunt, sallow, deep-lined and wrinkled is never natural to any person at any age. Such a face is always a sign of ill health or ill condition, and is capable of being radically changed by a proper course of local treatment, mental and otherwise. No woman is to blame if she is not beautiful before she reaches 40. Beauty is often inherited; it may always be achieved. The form of the features depends largely upon the state of the health. A thin, sallow, wrinkled, prematurely old face will become smooth, rosy and rounded, through proper care of the face and the body, of which the face is a part.

There are many faces which have regular features, perfect coloring and fine skin, and yet fall far short of beauty. For beauty is more than perfection of form and coloring. Beauty is almost entirely in expression and expression is the result of the mental state. It seems difficult to make women realize that next to health their habitual mental attitude is the most powerful influence to make or destroy their beauty. Often the mental state is more important than health, for a thought vividly held in the mind has the power to affect the health itself, making the sick well or the well person ill, according to the quality of the thought. Women who realize the power of thought and feeling upon health will not worry or let vexation or depression upset their mental poise.

After a little practice, and a very little at that, they will find that they need not be slaves to surroundings, nor even be affected by them. They will have found the philosopher's stone, which is not a stone at all, but simply a mental attitude. They have found a power at whose touch the base metals, care, trouble, misfortune, are changed into the pure gold of spiritual development. Then woman enters into her kingdom, serene beauty and infinite power. The mother of all good, the mother of all life. Remember, the mind is to be credited with woman's greatest charm.

STELLA K.—The best way to cure enlarged pores is by the use of a complexion brush, pure soap, and plenty of warm and cold water. Cleanse the face thoroughly with this brush each night before retiring. By this practice the pores, which have become enlarged by clogged secretions, are kept free, and gradually they will contract and become normal in size. Witch hazel is an excellent astringent and will help to close the pores. When using it on the face heat it and dip the cloth in it and place over the face, allowing it to remain until cold. Be sure and cool the face before going out into the open air. If you care for a formula for astringent lotion, send me a stamped, addressed envelope and I shall be glad to send it to you.

A. N.—I am sorry, but I know nothing of the compound you ask about. Why don't you consult your physician and ask him about it?

MRS. A. A.—One should carefully wash the eyes each morning. Use boric acid to the strength of ten grains to six ounces distilled water; heat and strain and when cold use in eye cup. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall send you a set of splendid exercises for strengthening the eyes; also formula for hair tonic for dandruff.

H. O.—There is nothing that will restore gray hair; you will have to use a coloring matter, and I would not advise you to do this. Go to the best beauty shop in your town and get an opinion on the subject. You must remember if you once begin to dye your hair you are forever after a slave to the practice, for the color will never wear off the ends and where your hair grows out it will grow out white. I fear to be honest and sincere, and though some of my readers seem to think it strange, that my secrets of beauty are only those of health, kind thoughts and common sense, yet that is the sum and substance of them.

MISS E. P.—It is slow and tedious work to reduce the bust, and the exercises must be accompanied by dieting. Any vigorous exercise that involves the muscles of the chest will help to reduce the bust. Consequently, boxing and dancing are beneficial for this purpose. Exercise with chest weights of not over two pounds and a half. The weight may be gradually increased to five pounds, according to the increase of your strength. Each movement is practiced from ten to fifteen or twenty times. Over-fatigue is harmful, not helpful. If you will, send me a stamped, addressed envelope, I shall be glad to send you a formula for reducing the bust and

SCHOOL AND PLAYGROUND

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO AID PARENTS AT FETE

Children of the Franklin school will assist the Parents' and Teachers' Association at the annual May festival, which will be held in the middle of May on the school grounds, Ninth, avenue and East Fifteenth street.

On that day a picture of Mrs. Phebe Hearst will be placed in the Hall of Fame beside that of the late Joaquin Miller, poet of the Sierra, in the Franklin school.

Miller's portrait was the first which graced the new hall of fame which have played an important part in the making of the history of California.

There are sixty teachers in the association and twenty teachers who have pledged themselves to work for the betterment of the school. They have the co-operation of the pupils, who are endeavoring to maintain the high standards of the institution.

HIKERS' CLUB RIDES ON BIKES TO LIVERMORE

Over many rocky paths, the members of the Hiker's Club made a trip on bicycles to Livermore by way of the Golden Gate. Only a limited number joined the party, which left this city Sunday morning at 9 o'clock and reached their destination at 11 o'clock. Gethin Williams was followed by Lloyd Tobey, Ludolph Folkers, Raymond Abernathy and Carroll Spencer. They were the officers of the organization are: Lloyd Tobey, president; Raymond Abernathy, vice-president; Carroll Spencer, secretary; Ludolph Folkers, treasurer, and Gethin Williams, sergeant-at-arms.

BRYCE WILL PAY LAST VISIT AS AMBASSADOR

OTTAWA, Ont., March 5.—British Ambassador Bryce will come here from Washington on Saturday as the Duke of Connaught, on what will be his last official visit here in United States. He will, it is said, discuss outstanding matters between Canada and Great Britain, including the Panama canal act and the way it may affect Canadian shipping. On Saturday night Premier Borden will give a dinner in Mr. Bryce's honor.

OLDEST ELK DIES AT AGE OF 70 YEARS

PATTERSON, N. J., March 5.—Harry C. Star, 70 years old, said to be the oldest member of the Elks in the United States, former actor and theatrical manager, died yesterday at his home here. He came from a family of actors and his theatrical career as a call boy in the old Chestnut Street theater in Philadelphia. As an actor, he played in companies throughout the country and later became a successful actor and promoter of theatrical enterprises.

GRANT SCHOOL TEAM IS ACTIVE

In recent exhibition basketball games held in Mosswood Park the Grant school girls matched their prowess with that of the Lincoln team and were praised for the sportsmanlike manner in which they conducted the contests.

The Grant school girls were defeated by the Lincoln squad, but they declared on the grounds that they would carry off the honors in the next battle. Marjorie Lyman is the captain of the Grant school team.

Basketball is the most popular sport of the season and many splendid games have already been played by the Lincoln and Grant school boys and girls.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB BOY ORATORS TO FORM TEAM

An extemporaneous debate furnished entertainment at the regular monthly meeting of the Junior Progressive Club held last Friday in the turret room of the Oakland public library. Four girls and Jefferson students. Six boy orators took part in the argument, which created much excitement. Within the next future a debating team will be formed for the purpose of promoting the study of forensics.

The lady said that they will be ready to meet teams representing the schools of this city as soon as the squad is permanently established.

The new constitution will be ready before the end of March. It is being compiled by Carroll Spencer, Ludolph Folkers, Gethin Williams, Raymond Abernathy and Lloyd Tobey.

MISS HELEN GARCIA HAS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

A number of little friends and playmates of Miss Helen Isabelle Garcia gathered at the home of the latter's parents at 1602 East Fourteenth street recently to celebrate the sixth birthday of that young lady. GIVE CARD PARTY FUNDS FOR SCHOOL

MISS DORIS PORTER, WHO WILL BE AN USHER AT THE CARD PARTY.—Scharz Photo.

The arrangements for the charity card party to be given by the Franklin School Mothers' Club on the afternoon of March 29 at the Home Club are being rapidly completed. Tables have been reserved by a number of prominent society and club women, and an attendance of several hundred is expected.

The card party is given for the purpose of raising funds to establish a cafeteria in the school, where the children may get warm, nourishing lunches at cost price. A number of pretty maids will act as scorers and ushers, among them Miss Doris Porter. After the card games Mrs. Lehman of Chicago will give two songs, and Leigh O'Brien, Walbridge will contribute two Gilbert dances, interpretative of "Will-of-the-Wisp" and "Moonlight on the Ocean."

Several tables have been reserved by some of the society matrons, who will entertain parties of friends on that day. Among those who have already taken tables are:

RUSH WORK ON NEW CITY JAIL

Prison Expected to Be Ready for Use by End of This Month.

Many Devices for Quick and Efficient Handling of Men
Installed.

Work is being rushed on the new city jail in the twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth stories of the new city hall in the hope of removing the prisoners from the basement of the old city hall to their new quarters in the highest jail in America by April 1. A force of 100 men is at work, and it is the expectation of Commissioner H. S. Anderson that the cells will be ready for occupancy by that time.

The twelfth floor is to contain 36 cells for men charged with felonies. They will be well ventilated and heated with steam, and will be electric lighted. There will also be four detention cells, two large open air exercise courts, seven shower rooms, and a gang and mess room on this floor.

The women prisoners will be lodged on the thirteenth floor. In addition to the open exercise court and master's quarters, the women prisoners are provided with a large laundry and will be allowed to do the regular washing for the city jail.

The city emergency hospital will be placed on the fourteenth floor, while the bureau of identification, presided over by Expert Harry Caldwell, will be on the fifteenth, out of the way of dust and noise.

The prison will be connected with the police station and police courts on the lower floor of the building by large elevators. A feature of the prison will be that by an electric device the entire jail can be flooded with blinding electric light in case of an attempted jail break, were such a thing ever tried.

Phone Supervisor Bride of Engineer

Miss Minnie Picasso and U. C.
Graduate Wed in Redwood City.

Speeding thirty miles to evade notoriety, Miss Minnie Picasso, senior supervisor of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Marlon D. Grubb, a graduate of the College of Civil Engineering of the University of California, were married yesterday afternoon in Redwood City. Rev. David Crabtree, pastor of the Episcopal church of Redwood City, officiated.

Both parties received the blessing and consent of their parents before embarking upon the matrimonial venture and are now enjoying the congratulations of their friends and relatives.

Mrs. Grubb's co-workers were agreeably surprised when the news reached them and are offering felicitations and presenting gifts to the bride, who is very popular with the "central girls" as well as hosts of acquaintances in the social world.

Marlon D. Grubb is a resident of Hollister, where he has made his home for a number of years. His father is cashier of the Bank of Hollister, and is active in the civic affairs of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Grubb will reside here.

LIPTON TO TRY AGAIN FOR AMERICA'S CUP

Sends Challenge to New York Yacht Club
for Race in 1914

LONDON, March 5.—A challenge by the Royal Ulster Yacht club for a series of races for the America's cup to take place in 1914 made on behalf of Sir Thomas Lipton, is on its way to America. It will reach New York on the Oceanic today or tomorrow.

The challenge is for competitions under the old rules. Sir Thomas Lipton, who has just returned from America, when questioned on the subject, said there was no doubt of the acceptance of the challenge. The New York Yacht club, he added, has been notified by the Royal Ulster Yacht club and Sir Thomas Lipton personally of the dispatch of the challenge.

Sir Thomas Lipton expressed considerable surprise when asked about the truth of the report that a challenge for the America's cup had been sent to New York. He had endeavored to keep the matter secret until the delivery of the challenge to the New York Yacht club.

"For reasons of courtesy," Sir Thomas regretted that he was compelled to withhold some of the details. He admitted, however, that his prejudice against the old "deed of gift" rules had been overcome, and that he had challenged for a series of races under the old conditions.

With luck on his side he hoped to win without being the recipient of any favors. When asked as to his previous statement that he would not challenge again for the America's cup except under the universal rules prevailing for yacht racing in America, Sir Thomas replied:

"Well, it is 10 years since the last international race in America. I challenged six years ago under the universal rules but my challenge was not accepted. I thought that for the sake of yachting both here and in America it was time we had another try for the cup. Hence my challenge under the conditions laid down in the 'deed of gift'."

GOOD HOPE OF SUCCESS.

"My designer holds out good hope of success without risking the lives of the crew of the yacht while crossing the ocean," Sir Thomas said, that he could not give the size of his yacht until the challenge had reached New York. The "deed of gift," he said, however, provides for a boat from 65 to 90 feet in length.

As to the skipper of his yacht, Sir Thomas said:

"You know Captain Edward Sycamore has been sailing Shamrock IV in international and local races in Europe for several years and I have another of my American captains at my call. Besides, I have my usual crew of racing men."

Sir Thomas added that it was necessary to put off the race until 1914 as it would take him all that time to build his yacht and get ready. He might, he said, build two yachts. The present Shamrock IV is also a possibility. She won seven out of eight international races in which she competed in Germany last season, and 23 out of 30 local races.

Expected Trouble at Nacozari
Brings Hundreds of Refugees to Douglas.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Frank Horace, an American, is reported shot dead by an unknown assailant in Manzanillo. Consul Kirk is investigating. Consul Ellsworth at Ciudad Portillo Diaz fears complications over the attempt of Captain Contreras to extort money to pay his soldiers from Americans and other foreigners.

TWO REPORTED KILLED.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 5.—Mexican authorities at Agua Prieta declared today that two Mexican soldiers were killed yesterday by the machine gun used by troops of the Ninth Cavalry in the border skirmish near here.

This makes a total of six federal soldiers killed since Sunday, when the first fight occurred. No American trooper has even been wounded. The entire Ninth Cavalry, including the machine gun platoon, remains on the border today, drawn in a skirmish line for a distance of 20 miles, but the Mexican troops have not been sighted.

Hundreds of refugees arrived here during the night from Nacozari, where trouble was expected today when the armistice expires. Nearly 600 Maderista rebels left the Cananea district last night to join others at Colonia Morelos, where a mobilization is in progress.

MEXICANS FIRED FIRST.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Mexican soldiers were responsible for the latest border fight near Douglas, Ariz., with troops of the Ninth Cavalry, by firing the first shot, according to a report today from Brigadier General Bliss at Fort Sam Houston.

The general says Colonel Guilfoyle reported that an armed body of Mexicans apparently Yaquis moved out of Agua Prieta yesterday morning, deployed and fired a few shots at a detached post about a thousand yards south of the camp on the boundary.

An American machine gun replied with five shots and the Mexicans retired toward Agua Prieta. Colonel Guilfoyle makes no mention of any casualties, but says he has two troops with a machine gun on observation at points where the trouble occurred. He says no cause is known for the attack, as no provocation of any kind was given by the American soldiers.

General Bliss reports that he has instructed Colonel Guilfoyle in case of a further attack not to return the fire unless it is necessary to protect life on the American side. He also has cautioned him to keep his men under cover as far as practicable, so as not to invite hostile action from irresponsible parties. Detailed reports which have reached the State Department of the first collision between American troops and Mexicans near Douglas, Ariz., make it appear that this was the work of Maderistas, and that although the Mexican federal forces were not at first involved, they were in the end drawn into the long-range rifle duel and only one Mexican was wounded.

Azavedo and 'Red' Robinson to Meet Here in Return Match White Sox Arrive Today to Open Baseball Season With the Oaks

PROMOTER ROHAN HAS COMPLETED SWAT CARD

Pittsburg Lightweight Confident He Can Turn Tables on Rival

(By THE TIMEKEEPER)

Promoter Jimmy Rohan announced today that he had signed up Joe Azavedo and "Red" Robinson in a six-round return match as a preliminary to the McAllister-Meehan fray on the night of March 12. Azavedo and Robinson fought six fast rounds before the Wolgast-Murphy bout at Daly City and Joe managed to get the decision. Robinson's manager insisted that his boy was not properly acclimated, having been in California only five days before the bout, and having spent most of the time swapping hard punches with Ad Wolgast. Robinson promises to do better a week from tonight. He has boxed with Packey McFarland and some of the top-notchers and may surprise the fast Sacramento boy. Terry Long and Jimmie Ross (Racehorse Munzo) will furnish the four-round curtain-raiser.

No Truth in Rumors

Let a boxer come into the limelight and immediately there are stories of where he is to "break" with his present manager and take on some one else. Bob McAllister, the champion amateur who meets Willie Meehan in his first professional bout before the Oakland Wheelmen's club, March 12, is no exception to the rule. Since Bob has been matched with his first professional opponent stories have sprung up that this man and that man were to manage him. The latest came out of Los Angeles to the effect that he was to tie up with "Cherokee" Tom Jones, manager of Ad Wolgast.

This is not true. At least McAllister denies the report and says that his brother will continue to look after his affairs for the present, at least. Without any disparaging remarks toward the manager of the former champion this is a good resolution on the part of McAllister. There is no doubt that he could handle him to the front quickly. In fact, quicker than anyone else, but until he finds whether he wants to engage in the professional game for a livelihood he had better leave the matter of a manager until later.

McAllister is working like a Trojan to get in shape for this first fight of his. While he has accomplished everything that has been asked of him in the amateur line he should not be slighted of the fact that stepping into the professional ranks is no small thing and he wants to be right for his first appearance. As far as backers go he has all that any boxer could wish but all the backers in the world cannot help a fighter who steps into the ring. And in Meehan he is meeting a tough boy. Meehan is a tough underdog for some of the old stagers, much less for a novice at the professional game. Yet McAllister has all the confidence in the world that he will win by a knockout. He has demonstrated his training camp at the Wheelmen's club that he has a wallop and it would not be at all surprising if he entered the ring as the favorite over Meehan for the next show.

McAllister's supporters are strong for him and the backing of the former champion Corbett has caused the members of the Olympic club to believe that he is almost a sure winner over Meehan.

McAllister is working out each afternoon at the Wheelmen's gymnasium and is drawing a crowd of followers to watch his work. He has profited by some of the pointers handed him by former champion James J. Corbett and is making use of his training.

Watson Well Supported

In presenting Red Watson and Willie Hoppe for the headliner of the next round card next Friday night at the Pavilion rink, Promoter Ferrarini is assuring his patrons of a good show. The balance of Hoppe have met before and Hoppe was given the decision after four fast and furious rounds. The decision was a close one and the Oakland supporters believe that Red will be able to reverse the decision when they meet again.

He has taken to hard training for this bout and should enter the ring in the best of shape. Hoppe also has been working hard and will enter the ring as a favorite over Red. The balance of the card is a good, well balanced one.

Can It Really Be True

Really it begins to look like there was something to that come back story of James J. Jeffries after all. Tom Jones is author of the statement that the former champion is planning another invasion of the ring.

Jeffries says that he is to manage Jeff Jones and that he depends largely on how the public views the matter and also whether a promoter can be found willing to match the two boxers with some of the white hopes of today. Jeffries unquestionably figures that Johnson is all in so far as his fighting days are over and does not have a very high regard for the ability of the

Wolgast and Murphy Are Rematched by Coffroth

There was great rejoicing today among local fans following the announcement from Promoter Coffroth that he had re-matched Ad Wolgast and Harlem Tommy Murphy for a twenty-round encounter at the Elgin-street arena in San Francisco for either April 12 or 19. If Harlem Tommy prefers the 12th, that Saturday will be selected.

The boys weigh in at the ring-side at 133 pounds and fight under the same conditions as before, except as to the remuneration. Wolgast accepting a cut and Murphy getting an increase for his hit. Griffin will again referee. Wolgast has agreed to train at least sixteen days for this match.

BOBBY AND HIS FIGHTING FACE

This photograph posed for the TRIBUNE by Bob McAllister shows the fighting face of the Olympic champion. The panel shows the crowd coming from the tarring quarters yesterday.

THE PHANTOM BASE RUNNER.

The game was tied at six runs. The Phantom Base Runner, who had been in the game for some time, was finally caught out by the Oakland team.

When suddenly was seen the pitcher snap to second sack. And Jake was pitched between. Then followed a couple of tags.

I venture to declare, As never happened on this earth. Old Jake was quicker than a cat. And cunning as a fox.

But for a gift it looked as if they had him in a box. Their work was mighty fast. And back and forth lightning speed.

The ball was pegged and passed. Old Jake dodged and ducked and wheeled. As nimble as a hound.

And then afore the gap in crowd. They hummed him in and shut him off. And closed in with a bound.

And then the unexpected came. And back and forth lightning speed. For while ten thousand eyes looked on. Jake disappeared from sight.

Just vanished, faded, passed away. Amid a cloud of dust. While ten thousand eyes looked on. As if their blocks would bust.

It was a flash of light. Could figure what the matter. They seem of Wiener round in third. And slid for the platter.

'Twas afore of Jake would tell. Just how he won that game. And even then he hid to own. The matter was a mystery.

'You see,' says Jake, 'that base line led A regular stage trapdoor. When an old Bill Twiggler. Had rigged it for me.'

—By G. S. APPLEGARTH.

Jack Killian's younger brother, Harry, has applied to J. Cal Boring for a job with the Seals. Harry was in the Union association last year. The Killians are a family of baseball players, as another brother, William, is in a Northwestern league outfit this year.

'Gunboat' Smith and 'Bomb' Wells live up to their names the engagement should be rather explosive.

Tennis representatives from California and Stanford at their last meeting were unable to settle upon any definite date for the final intercollegiate match. It is almost certain that this tournament will fall about the 22nd and 23rd of April. It is expected that the matter will be decided by the end of the week.

Quite a few of the local fans were down to the Oaks train Sunday and they are now buzzing around town telling how the team looks. Pat Lerue, Jake

Edwin Gaylord, ex-Racing Prince, Wins Hand of Attractive Girl.

Edwin Gaylord, wealthy mining man of Denver and Cripple Creek and former owner of one of the most famous strings of race horses in the country, and Mrs. Florence Burke, who was married recently across the Nebraska border line, in Agallala.

According to a special dispatch to THE TRIBUNE, Mrs. Burke, in her haste to leave the train at Agallala, caught the heel of her shoe in the carpet, and the heel was lost.

"Oh, Mr. Gaylord, what shall I do?" cried the bride-to-be. Gaylord sized up the situation, and repaired to a shoe store, where Mrs. Burke was supplied with a neat pair of No. 3 shoes. Gaylord then made inquiries as to the distance to the courthouse, and the number of ministers in Agallala. A marriage license was obtained and Gaylord gave his age as 48, and gave Mrs. Burke's name as Miss Florence Savage, aged 22.

The couple then stepped across the street to the Methodist Episcopal parsonage and were married by the Rev. Dr. Clifton.

Mrs. Gaylord has a beautiful voice, cultivated abroad. She has great charm of manner and beauty. She comes of an old Eastern family, and her father was a professor in Lawrence university for many years.

After a short sojourn in Cripple Creek, the couple will make their home in a pretty bungalow owned by Gaylord in Denver.

Edwin Gaylord is well known both in Oakland and San Francisco. He has claimed one of the best stables of thoroughbreds in this country, when racing was in its heyday at Emeryville. His many friends here join in congratulations.

JOE DIAZ OF THE WEST END HAS VALENTINE AS THE CHALLENGER TO ANY BARBER WHO WINS $11 J. and M. shoes to compete with him in the shave-a-neck business.

DUAL MEET ARRANGED. The dual meet between the Olympic club and the Berkeley High School swimming team will be held the evening of Friday, March 28, in the club tank.

Berkeley has suggested that each race be limited to two representatives from each organization. Cavill is anxious to have at least three in each event. This matter will be decided during the week.

WELL KNOWN HORSEMAN WEDS AT NEBRASKA BORDER LINE

Edwin Gaylord, ex-Racing Prince, Wins Hand of Attractive Girl.

Edwin Gaylord, wealthy mining man of Denver and Cripple Creek and former owner of one of the most famous strings of race horses in the country, and Mrs. Florence Burke, who was married recently across the Nebraska border line, in Agallala.

According to a special dispatch to THE TRIBUNE, Mrs. Burke, in her haste to leave the train at Agallala, caught the heel of her shoe in the carpet, and the heel was lost.

"Oh, Mr. Gaylord, what shall I do?" cried the bride-to-be. Gaylord sized up the situation, and repaired to a shoe store, where Mrs. Burke was supplied with a neat pair of No. 3 shoes. Gaylord then made inquiries as to the distance to the courthouse, and the number of ministers in Agallala. A marriage license was obtained and Gaylord gave his age as 48, and gave Mrs. Burke's name as Miss Florence Savage, aged 22.

The couple then stepped across the street to the Methodist Episcopal parsonage and were married by the Rev. Dr. Clifton.

Mrs. Gaylord has a beautiful voice, cultivated abroad. She has great charm of manner and beauty. She comes of an old Eastern family, and her father was a professor in Lawrence university for many years.

The challenge of the Claremont Country club to a home-and-home contest with the San Francisco Golf and Country club has been accepted and the match will start on the local links next Saturday. A week from then, the Claremont players will cross the bay and play at Ingleside. Dr. F. J. Lane, captain of the Claremont club, will announce the team that will defend Oakland honors in a few days. Jack Neville will lead off for the Claremont club and Campbell D. Whyte for San Francisco.

Frank Newton and Dr. D. P. Fredricks will be missing from the Claremont side, the former having gone East and the latter having given up the same temporarily.

CRY OF 'PLAY BALL' TO RING IN EARS TOMORROW

Mitze Confident League Champions Will Give Sox Hot Argument

By BILLY FITZ.

Tomorrow afternoon the champions of the Pacific Coast League will have the honor of ushering in the 1913 baseball season by entertaining the visiting hosts of Comiskey, known to fame because of the immaculate nature of their hosiery. The voice of the Fog-Horn Murphey will once again resound through the streets, the old familiar signs, "Baseball Today," will decorate the north end of San Pablo cars and before we know it, we'll be wearing straw hats, eating peanuts and booing at the umpire in the same old way.

The White Sox first squad came into Oakland late this afternoon, when comfortable quarters have been prepared for them at the Hotel Oakland. They are under the direct charge of Manager J. J. Callahan, and represent the creme de la creme of the Old Roman's outfit. The league will be of interest to local fans as he has always been a favorite in California. The large number of former Pacific coast players on Comiskey's payroll no doubt accounts for the popularity of the Chicago Sox. Zeile, who will always be remembered for his sensational season last season, playing with the San Francisco Seals several years ago, is still in the game. Zeile has said he practically every position of the infield while playing with the club, third base being the position which he held down successfully with the Seals. Zeile was a star of the time last season, although Borton will handle the hot ones around the initial sack this year.

Tomorrow's game will be followed by games in San Francisco on Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons between the Seals and the White Sox with the usual Sunday morning game at 10 o'clock between the Oaks and the White Sox at the Grove street park. This order will be repeated the following week and on Monday, March 17, St. Patrick's day, the White Sox will play St. Mary's college on the Grove street grounds. Following the St. Mary's game, the first squad will begin working south and the second squad, which comes far the strongest, will twirl the staff, will open in Oakland against the Oaks Thursday afternoon, March 20, remaining in this vicinity for ten days with the same sort of a schedule, after which both squads will pack up and depart.

MITZE LOOKS FOR VICTORY. Manager Mitze is confident that the Oaks will come out on the long end of more than one of the games against the White Sox. Local fans will be given good use of him the early part of the season.

Cy Parkin seems to be in wonderful form right now, and Mitze will make good use of him the early part of the season.

Mitze is very sweet on Olmsted and Pope and will use them both regularly this year. Pope will pitch against the White Sox tomorrow.

Watch out for this fellow Abbott. He is a demon with the stick and is working like a good fellow to improve his physical condition. He intends to make a position on the outfield or know the reason why.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ables celebrated their first wedding anniversary yesterday and were the recipients of congratulations from the entire team.

Too bad, Young Wells isn't a bit better. He hasn't himself much and seems too light to make the Oaks infield yet. He is a good little shortstop and will be heard from yet.

The Tiger regulars gave the Yanknigans a respectable trouncing in the training camp at Livermore, but the two squads of the Venice team at V. M. C. A. field yesterday, the score being 3 to 2. The feature of the game was the pitching of Cy Parkin, who was figuring just how far out in front the Tigers would be at the close of the playing season next fall.

Apparently training does not agree with the Seals. McCarty is telling all who will listen that he is not feeling well, while buster "Pop" Arlett is in a state almost nervous prostration from fear of a Charlie Horse.

After watching his players work out yesterday Captain Dillon decided that he would like to see the Seals in a few days' sliding practice. This will be the last of the season.

PROMISING SWIMMERS TO SPORT THE NEW CIRCULAR "C"

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, March 5.—Increased interest is being manifested this year in swimming, as indicated by the large number of entries for the annual meet of the California Swimming Association, which will be held at Berkeley Y. M. C. A. and many promising swimmers have appeared for the new aquatic meet of this year. California's weakest points will be in the sprints, for the absence of M. A. Lee, 14 and 16, and J. J. Peterson, 18, who were the stars of last year.

Eight men are to be selected this year to compose the Blue and Gold Varsity swimming team, and the new circular "C" emblem will be awarded to those who make this team.

In compliance to the latest A. U. rules, two new heats have been added to the list of events for which the Blue and Gold will train representatives. These are the under water swimming for distance and the fancy spring-board diving competition. Captain Dillon has stated that several worthy candidates are out for the new events. Good prospects prevail for the development of a fast relay five. In addition to the events mentioned above, California is to be represented in the 50 yd., 220 yd., 410 yd., and 80 yd. dashes. Meets are to be arranged with the various swimming associations about the bay.

BLOW TO U. S. BREEDERS. NEW YORK, March 5.—Exactly how far-reaching is the recent French ruling against the registration of American thoroughbreds in their stud book is set forth in a copy of the rules just received from the French government.

The new rule becomes effective March 15, and such a date makes it certain that the foal dropped this season by American trainers in France will be ineligible for registration.

NOTES FROM RIVAL TRAINING CAMPS

The Yanknigans gave the Regulars the reverse English at Livermore yesterday and trimmed them 6 to 4. Tyler Christian, Cy Parkin, Kubelik Olmsted, Ables, Pope, Pernell and Gregory all took turns on the mound and showed plenty of speed.

Cy Parkin seems to be in wonderful form right now, and Mitze will make good use of him the early part of the season.

ENTRY BLANKS ARE OUT FOR HAYWARD ROAD RACE

The Hayward Athletic Club has sent out entry blanks for a six-mile race to be held in Hayward during the blossom festival on March 29.

Well known athletes from the bay section will be entered in the race and it is expected that some good marks for the distance will be set.

The committee in charge of the affair is sending out communications to the various colleges and high schools and the eastern.

The race is a free-for-all affair and any amateurs desiring to enter can do so by getting into communication with E. R. Robinson, Hayward, care of Rev. L. E. Thompson.

There will be a number of trophies offered for places. There will be one for the first high, one for the first in the bay, and a trophy for the first Hayward man to finish. There will be time prizes, also prizes.

LADIES' NIGHT FINDS PLACE ON Y. M. C. A. PROGRAM

Plans for an entertainment Friday evening in the Oakland Y. M. C. A. are being prepared by the physical directors of the association. The affair will be a ladies' night. The last time such an event was given there were over 1400 people in attendance.

Over 200 boys will participate in the different "gym" stunts. Stereopticon slides will show different views of Y. M. C. A. boys on the "links" in the gym and at the various "team" events and other events of the club. T. S. Caldwell is handling this section of the program. C. H. Moore, C. Street and C. S. Martin are handling the 4-talls. The general public is invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

Two famous stars of diamond are coming here

Oakland fans will have an opportunity to see two interesting characters in the baseball world on the vaudeville stage next week. Rubie Marquard will appear in one vaudeville house and Pop Anson in another.

Marquard will have his Boston Society to help him out in his act, while the veteran Anson, one of the greatest men who ever climbed into a uniform, will dance a little, chirp a little and spin baseball yarns.

The Fame of the Steinway Piano

¶ The fame of the Steinway, by which all other Pianos are measured and judged, is not merely local or national. It is international, universal, world-wide, and is the recognition, in the strongest possible manner, of a work of art that in its line is unequalled and unrivaled.

¶ From its inception the Steinway Piano has been known as THE BEST PIANO, without qualification or limitation.

¶ We sell Steinways on moderate terms.

Our facilities for repairing and storing are unequalled on the Pacific Coast

BUSY CHECK PASSER CLAIMS NEW VICTIM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Victims continue to make reports at police headquarters concerning the operations of a check passer who cleaned up several hundred dollars in the Ingleside district during the past few weeks of February. This morning Frank Loney, a saloonkeeper of 3842 Mission street, reports that he cashed a check for $21 which was adorned with the same signatures as the others and proved to be a forgery. The checks were all signed W. H. Quinn, superintendent for Bates, Borland & Ayer.

THIEF SEEKS BOOTY IN WORKMEN'S CLOTHES

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—E. Mehlert, a civil engineer, employed by the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company, detected a thief at work in the Service building on the fair grounds this morning, and succeeded in capturing him. Mehlert came upon the culprit searching the clothing of laborers. The man ran at sight of him and was pursued by the engineer, who called for aid. The fugitive was stopped by James O. Wilson and taken to the North End station. He gave the name of James Perry and was booked for attempted grand larceny.

There is but one Piano today which clings unwaveringly to the highest ideals of artistic piano construction—but one Piano which has never sought to enhance its position commercially by the building of miniature Grand Pianos to meet the competition of low price, nor felt the necessity of installing the Piano-Player in its instruments in order to maintain the market for its product.

The Mason & Hamlin Piano

is the one perfect Piano of today—the one Piano which meets, unfailingly, every demand, satisfies the most critical musicians, arouses the enthusiastic admiration of the most exacting critics; which, by the nobility, resonance and majestic quality of its tone, is winning new admirers, making new converts, building a home in the hearts of lovers of the truly artistic, and has created a demand that is the marvel of the music trades.

Mason & Hamlin Pianos invite severest comparison, yet recognize no competition. Because they are better made, embodying in their construction the finest materials obtainable, and because of their patented features, Mason & Hamlin Pianos cost more than other pianos, yet, so superior is their quality, so perfect their architectural design, so beautiful their finish, that the additional cost is doubly justified.

All styles of Mason & Hamlin Pianos are shown at our stores, and are sold on easy payments, when desired.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED AT MISS BAXLEY'S HEARING

Teacher's Attorney Has Spirited Tiff With President of Board

George Ingraham, attorney for Miss Alice V. Baxley, and Chairman Calvin M. Orr of the Board of Education, indulged in a few squabbles last night at the final session of the hearing given the accused principal, and E. Morris Cox, assistant superintendent of schools, was put in the uncomfortable position of being forced to admit that a report which he had produced to show the standing of the transferred principal's school, was beyond his understanding. He was able to cull from the report many facts which did not credit the principal, but when Director Boyle pressed the question as to how the school rated with others in scholarship he evaded the question, finally declaring that he did not understand the report. Business Manager Barker took the report and declared that it showed Miss Baxley's school to be 8 per cent above the average in progress of students.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.
Ingraham openly charged that eight teachers testifying against the principal had formed a conspiracy and declared that Orr was protecting them. Orr, armed with a little brief authority, ruled out questions indiscreetly, while the attorney protested in vain. Orr declared that whether the principal lied or not was immaterial to him and that therefore he would allow no testimony from neighbors to prove that, contrary to charges of the teachers, the girls were held. Director Harry Boyle attempted to have this testimony adduced, but the board did not second his motion.

"Are you trying to cross-examine me?" shouted the irate chairman of the board to the attorney, when the latter objected to his repeating a question for the sixth time.

"No, I am protecting my witness, the same as you have protected your witnesses," retorted Ingraham.

"I have protected no witnesses," declared Orr.

"It would take too long to define protection to start an argument," declared the attorney.

At each protested ruling Orr took refuge behind the declaration that the hearing was not legal, and that the board had full power. Ingraham reiterated the statement that the chief aim had been given a square deal. Miss Baxley reminded Orr that the board had promised her the right to introduce several outside witnesses.

"Well, it is not on the minutes, so you cannot force us to," declared the chairman.

DEFINES EXAMINATION.
Assistant Superintendent E. Morris Cox was put on the stand by Ingraham to testify as to whether the papers submitted or examinations by Miss Baxley were so or not. Cox seemed unwilling to state that they were or were not, but admitted that they could easily be classified as examinations. These papers show that Miss Baxley's class after she had testified that no examinations were held.

"These are written tests," admitted Cox, on examination by Ingraham, "and so, I believe, are examinations." Cox replied that Miss Baxley's scholars, in application, rated above average. Cox declared that he based his report on the past three years.

Ingraham again tried to introduce outside evidence to prove the holding of fire drills. Orr again opposed.

TESTIMONY EXCLUDED.
"Do you ask that privilege?" asked Boyle.

"I do," said Ingraham.

This was not seconded on Boyle's motion that it be allowed.

Miss Baxley reminded the board that she was, at the beginning, promised the right to introduce such evidence. Orr took refuge behind the statement that this was not on the minutes.

BOYLE SEEKS EVIDENCE.
"I think I have the right to personally call a witness," said Boyle.

"No, you have not," said Orr.

"We are considering the best interests of the school," said Miss Brown, "and this fire drill matter is not vital."

CHARGES CONSPIRACY.
"Is it not vital for the good of the school to support a principal who is right, rather than eight conspiring teachers?" asked Ingraham. "We cannot prove that she is right if we cannot probe these matters, but since you hinder us we will do the best we can."

"Now, the testimony of Mr. Cox and the evidence of those papers presented here show what the testimony of the teachers, who said no examinations were held, is worth. Nothing!" Ingraham then put Miss Baxley on the stand. She declared that she observed fire drills, knew the standing of classes, and treated her teachers with consideration.

"In regard to yard duty," she said, "the board authorized me to arrange this. I did. I assigned teachers and appointed monitors. I was not compelled to do this according to the wishes of my teachers, I am sure."

DENIES ACCUSATION.
"The statement that the yard was not supervised at noon is false. That has been proved."

Miss Baxley also took up the matter of the alleged signing of the time register incorrectly.

"I registered according to my watch," said she. "The teachers testifying against her time on the school clock," she said, "in progress of all of my graduates have made good, from the scholastic standpoint, in high school."

"My school has not been compared to neighboring schools. The situation is different in an isolated district from the city schools to which mine has been compared."

"This is all I have to offer. I will say that I have been faithful. There has been no criticism of my work the whole time I have been in the department. I will rest my case."

COX ON GRILL.
Cox, confronted with the school report, was unable to state whether or not the school did, as Miss Baxley said, rank fifth in progress. Orr asked the question. Business Manager Barker, who took the report, was called to the stand by Cox, and which when pressed, Cox confessed he did not understand.

Cox was called to explain it. He declared that, in progress, Miss Baxley's school ranked eight per cent higher than normal.

TRUANCY PROBED.
Trust Officer James Hammond was called to testify in regard to the charge that Miss Baxley had not reported truants.

In one case, he declared, a truancy was not reported to him by Miss Baxley, but that neighbors reported the case to him.

He reported the cases reported to the truancy officer by the Baxley.

I did not report the case it was not reported to me. This particular case was reported continually."

Orr and Ingraham indulged in a wordy tiff over this matter. Orr had asked Miss Baxley the same question several times, and Ingraham objected.

"Are you cross-examining me?" asked Orr.

"No, I am protecting my witness as you are protecting your witnesses," retorted Ingraham.

"I am not protecting anyone," said Orr.

"Not now, but you have," answered the lawyer.

PRINCIPAL WAS ILL.
"Do you know if Miss Baxley was absent on illness when this case came up and was to have been reported?" asked Ingraham.

"I believe she was," answered Hammond.

"You said this boy was absent, and that Miss Baxley was ill," said Ingraham. "How could she be expected to report this if she was ill?"

"She could not," was the answer.

"This settles the charge," said Ingraham. "I rest the case."

The matter was referred back to the committee of the whole and will probably be decided on next week. Orr openly declared that, regardless of the evidence, he is against the principal. The vote of the other directors is not known.

ELABORATE PLANS FOR BIG DINNER

Prominent Men to Gather at Festive Board in Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, March 5.—Following acceptance of the invitation of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce to the California Development Board of San Francisco, to hold its annual dinner in Sacramento, a reception committee of twenty-five was appointed last night to make arrangements for dinner which will be a state-wide affair.

Robert Newton Lynch, vice-president of the California Development Board, has notified Secretary Andrews of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce that the dinner will be held at Hotel Sacramento on March 27 and that he has sent out invitations to the 700 members of the board. Through the members of the board, various counties invitations will be extended to the members of the Legislature.

The dinner will mark the close of the campaign for the advancement of the state fair and the topic of the evening will be "What a Good State Fair Would Mean to California."

The Sacramento committee on reception, headed by John T. Skelton, will plan to secure an attendance of 150 prominent Sacramentoans. The other members of the committee are: P. C. Drescher, E. W. Carmichael, George W. Peltier, R. D. Stephens, A. Bonnhelm, F. H. Pierce, E. L. Hawk, L. S. Upson, Dr. J. H. Parkinson, E. S. Brown, E. F. Prentiss, F. B. Fancher, E. L. Seymour, R. M. Richardson, H. OLD MEETING HOUSE IS TO BE RESTORED

BOSTON, March 5.—To restore the famous old South meeting house to its appearance in colonial times, workmen are scrubbing its outside surface with paint remover and soap, cleaning it of the accumulations of a century and a half. The tower and the halls of the famous landmark at Washington and Milk streets, once turned into a riding academy for British army officers and now used as a show place for historical relics, have been shorn of growths of ivy which partly concealed them. The bricks are to be washed to their natural red color of other days and the windows are being repainted in colonial fashion.

LONE ROBBER HOLDS UP STREET CAR CONDUCTOR

TACOMA, Wash., March 5.—A lone robber, masked, boarded a Pacific avenue street car at Thirty-fifth street at the end of the line, shortly after midnight and robbed the conductor, F. E. Dornbach, of his pouch and several dollars in change. The robber then disappeared into the darkness, without the motorman being aware of what was happening on the rear platform.

ARIZONA GOVERNOR REFUSES TO EXTRADITE

STOCKTON, March 5.—The governor of Arizona has refused to extradite Denier in the case of Andrew Denier, wanted in this city for failing to provide for a minor child, and Deputy Sheriff Thompson will return to the city. Thompson encountered formidable opposition, and has wired Sheriff Rocks that it is impossible to bring Denier to California.

In refusing extradition the Arizona governor takes the position that Denier is not a fugitive from justice, because his failure and negligence did not commence until after he went to Arizona, where it is not a felony for a man to fail to support his family.

YOUTH IS MISSING; POLICE START SEARCH

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—Police are searching for a missing youth, James, that if he did not hear from him James' parents should be notified, Charles E. Martin, who lives at the Acme Hotel, 818 Mission street, disappeared on the night of February 27 and has not been located. Martin, who is 21 years old, is employed in the Oyster Leaf Cafe, 61 Eddy street. He told James, who resided in the same hotel with him, that he was sure and communicate with him. James' parents have not shown up again. The police were notified and an investigation began. Martin is 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighing 145 pounds, and has brown hair and eyes.
